25-30.0371 Acquisition Adjustments.

(1) Definition. For the purpose of this rule, an acquisition adjustment is defined as the difference between the purchase price of utility system assets to an acquiring utility and the net book value of the utility assets. A positive acquisition adjustment exists when the purchase price is greater than the net book value. A negative acquisition adjustment exists when the purchase price is less than the net book value.

(2) Positive Acquisition Adjustments. A positive acquisition adjustment shall not be included in rate base absent proof of extraordinary circumstances. Any entity that believes a full or partial positive acquisition adjustment should be made has the burden to prove the existence of extraordinary circumstances. In determining whether extraordinary circumstances have been demonstrated, the Commission shall consider evidence provided to the Commission such as anticipated improvements in quality of service, anticipated improvements in compliance with regulatory mandates, anticipated rate reductions or rate stability over a long-term period, and anticipated cost efficiencies.

(3) Negative Acquisition Adjustments. A negative acquisition adjustment shall not be included in rate base unless there is proof of extraordinary circumstances or where the purchase price is less than 80 percent of net book value. If the purchase price is less than 80 percent of net book value then the inclusion of a negative acquisition
