Assets were transferred to OneStar Long Distance (Cert. #6042) in Docket 011208-TI and TI202's certificate #3510 was cancelled effective 3/1/02. Unless they are asking for OneStar's certificate to be cancelled, there does not appear to be any action for FPSC to take (and I would not open a docket to cancel another company's certificate unless it came directly from the certificate holder). I don't believe a docket should be opened. However, you may want to check with whoever handled that docket and see what they think. Even though their certificate is inactive, I would have Nonnye mark them in MCD as having filed for bankruptcy.

Here is another Paula. AS Telecommunications is advising us of Chapter 11 protection under U.S. Bankruptcy Code and they say they no longer conduct business in State of Florida. Do you want a bankruptcy docket opened?
