RECORDS AND REPORTING

Dear Ms. Bayo:

This letter is written in support of the current rate proposal submitted by Florida Water Services Corporation emanating from Docket Nos. 950495-WS and 980744-WS.

Having spent 30 years as an officer of a major railroad---CSX Transportation Company---I appreciate the need from a corporate standpoint to assure a necessary revenue flow while recognizing the responsibility of those representing the public in a regulated environment. I further feel qualified to support the proposed rate increase after serving several years as a volunteer customer representative that meets periodically with Florida Water personnel to review areas of common interest.

Further, as a past president of the Charter Point Community Association, which is located adjacent to the Woodmere facility of Florida Water in Jacksonville, I have and continue to place a high value on civic responsibility. THIS RATE PROPOSAL IS EQUITABLE TO FLORIDA WATER AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, TO THE RESIDENTS OF THIS SERVICE AREA.

Charles D. Leddon

Note: Order is in Word 2002 format - I had problems with this order in setting it up. Started from scratch twice. Please let me know if you have any problems running the macro. I'm curious to see if anything I did messed up any of the order macros which CCA needs to run.
I hope not though...

Subject: Commissioner assignment in Docket 980744-WS

Good afternoon.

We have a staff recommendation for this docket (980744-WS) that includes 9 other dockets; all 10 dockets are concerned with investigation into ratemaking considerations of gain on sale from Florida Water Services Corporation. Of the 10 dockets, only 980744 is assigned to a 3-Commissioner panel (BZ BD DV); 9 are assigned to the full Commission.

Staff's recommendation is that all the dockets be closed and that the hearing scheduled in 980744 be canceled; a revised CASR has just been filed for approval to close 980744 "due to recently enacted legislation."

May we indicate on the agenda that 980744 is assigned to the full Commission "for purposes of this decision only"?

I spoke to Ken Hoffman this morning. He reviewed the confidential document and discussed the matter with Florida Water Service. They have no objection to the document going into the public docket file.

Thanks, Mary Anne. He actually left just as we concluded our phone call, before I was able to tell him he could review the document. I left a message at his office advising he can see the document and asking him to call to arrange a time either today or next week.

Thanks again.

It is appropriate for Ken Hoffman to review the document.

Ken Hoffman is here now to review this document. Please advise if it is permissible for him to review this confidential filing which was made by OPC, but purportedly contains FWSC information. (OPC made the filing in 980744 in 2001, FWSC should have followed up with a formal request for confidentiality, but did not. I don't know of an established deadline for FWSC to have followed up with a formal request. We are trying to determine how to dispose of the document. Ken may be able to tell from review if the document is or is not in need of confidential handling.)

I've attached the PDF of the OPC cover letter for the conf. document.

He didn't say, but I would guess that he does; it's part of OPC's direct testimony. He seemed to think that he had enough information based on the document number.

Kay,

I checked with Ken Hoffman (FWSC's attorney), and he would like to take a look at the document before it's made public. I should have an answer by Friday.

Importance: High

Jan and Jennifer, Marguerite sent an e-mail in early October concerning this confidential document. It was filed by OPC in April 2001, and should have been followed up with a formal request for confidentiality from FWSC--IF FWSC wished for the document to continue to be treated as confidential. There was never a formal request filed.

Please confirm that it is appropriate to remove the document from the confidential file and place it in the public docket file.

Call Marguerite or me if questions.

Thanks.

Kay
