ORDER CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

Hideaway Service, Inc. (utility) is a water and sewer company serving customers in Levy County, Florida. On April 26, 1989, the utility applied for a staff-assisted rate case. We subsequently determined that the utility qualified for staff-assistance and notified the utility that a filing fee of $300 was due by June 23, 1989. Through a customer complaint received by the Commission on May 23, 1989, we learned that the Florida Investors Mortgage Company of Gainesville, Florida was contemplating, or had already instituted, foreclosure proceedings against the utility. Upon learning of the possible foreclosure action, we contacted Mr. William McKechnie, Jr. of the utility, who advised us that it was still uncertain as to whether a foreclosure would take place.

On June 19, 1989, Mr. McKechnie contacted our staff and advised that the utility was still unsure as to whether a foreclosure would take place, nevertheless the utility did not wish to pay the $300 filing fee until the question of foreclosure was resolved.

Accordingly, since the utility has failed to pay the required filing fee, we find that this docket should be closed.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that this docket, which was established to process the application of Hideaway Service, Inc. for a staff-assisted rate case in Levy County, is hereby closed.
