ORDER INDICATING NONJURISDICTIONAL STATUS OF THE CHILDREN'S FARM AND CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

On September 3, 1992, The Children's Farm filed an application with this Commission for recognition of nonjurisdictional status, pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. The Children's Farm is a child care center located in Bradford County, Florida. Ms. Irene Combass, Owner, filed the application on behalf of The Children's Farm.

Upon request and sufficient proof, the Commission will issue an order indicating the nonjurisdictional or exempt status of water or wastewater systems if they qualify under the appropriate provision of Chapter 367, Florida Statutes. According to the application, water is provided only to the child care center, there is no charge for providing the service, and all costs of providing service are treated or recovered as operational expenses.

Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes, states that a "utility means a water or wastewater utility and except as provided in Section 367.022, includes every person, lessee, trustee, or receiver owning, operating, managing or controlling a system, or proposing construction of a system, who is providing or proposes to provide water or wastewater service to the public for compensation."

Because The Children's Farm will not be providing water service to the public for compensation based on the facts as represented, we find that it is not a utility pursuant to Section 367.021(12), Florida Statutes. However, should there be any change in circumstances or method of operation, the owner of Children's Farm or any successors in interest, must inform the Commission within 30 days of such change so that we may review the matter to determine whether nonjurisdictional status is still appropriate.
