ORDER MODIFYING PROCEDURE

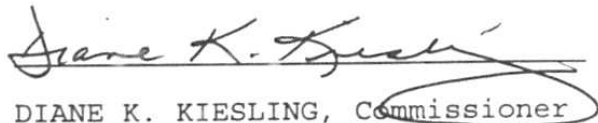

In Order No. PSC-94-0813-PCO-GU issued June 30, 1994, interrogatories, including all subparts, were limited to 100. In order to accommodate broader discovery needs, the Commission staff has requested that the maximum number of interrogatories be increased from 100 to 300. Staff states that City Gas Company does not oppose this request, although the Company reserves the right to object to each individual interrogatory as needed.

Having reviewed Staff's request, it is found that increasing the number of interrogatories, including all sub-parts, from 100 to 300 would be reasonable and fair to all parties. All other provisions of Order No. PSC-94-0813-PCO-GU shall remain in effect.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is:

ORDERED by Commissioner Diane K. Kiesling, as Prehearing Officer, that the maximum number of interrogatories, including all sub-parts, shall be increased from 100 to 300.

By ORDER of Commissioner Diane K. Kiesling, as Prehearing Officer, this 30th day of August, 1994.

DIANE K. KIESLING, Commissioner and Prehearing Officer

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: 1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.038(2), Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; 2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or 3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
