

LEAF/Evans argue that it is unreasonable for us to require the utilities to file demand side management plans to meet goals which will be changed if their Motion for Reconsideration is favorably considered. At our December 20, 1994, Agenda Conference, the Commission voted to make several mathematical changes suggested by LEAF, but denied the remainder of LEAF's Motion for Reconsideration. It is therefore unnecessary to allow additional time for the utilities to file demand-side management plans.

Based on the foregoing, it is, therefore

ORDERED that Legal Environmental Assistance Foundation Inc. and Deborah B. Evans' Motion for Stay of Final Order is, hereby denied. It is further

ORDERED that Legal Environmental Assistance Foundation Inc. and Deborah B. Evans' Motion for Enlargement of Time is, hereby, denied. It is further
