ORDER APPROVING TARIFF BY SOUTHERN BELL
TO ELIMINATE RESALE RESTRICTIONS

BY THE COMMISSION:

I. BACKGROUND

Since the advent of competition in the telecommunications market, the Commission has maintained a prohibition on the resale of Special Access Services, Private Line Services and Foreign Exchange Services.

The initial resale restriction for private line service was established by Order No. 11206, issued September 29, 1982. Resale of private line service was prohibited because the rates for private line service were thought to be below cost.

During the last several years the local exchange companies (LECs) have been engaged in restructuring and repricing of dedicated services. These changes coupled with advent of Alternate Access Vendors (AAVs) supports proposition that the resale prohibition should be revisited. By Order No. PSC-94-1545-FOF-TP we ordered that the prohibition on the resale of local exchange company LEC-provided special access service and the prohibition of resale of LEC-provided private line service should be eliminated. Further, the Commission ordered the LECs to file modified tariffs
