ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME
TO FILE DISCOVERY RESPONSES

On December 3, 1996, Florida Independent Directory Publishers (FIDP) filed a request for additional time to respond to Staff's Third Set of Interrogatories. By the provisions of Order No. PSC-96-1345-PCO-TL, FIDP's response was due December 4, 1996.

FIDP requested that it be permitted until December 11, 1996, to file its response, stating that the holiday further constricted the already shortened period of 15 days for discovery responses. A hearing has been set for January 13, 1996, in this proceeding, and discovery is to be completed by January 3, 1996.

I find that no party's interests will be adversely affected by the additional time. Therefore, FIDP's request is granted.

Based on the foregoing, it is, therefore,

ORDERED by Diane K. Kiesling, as Prehearing Officer, that Florida Independent Directory Publishers shall have until December 11, 1996, to respond to Staff's Third Set of Interrogatories.

By ORDER of Commissioner Diane K. Kiesling, as Prehearing Officer, this 12th day of December, 1996.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
