DOCKET NO. 020362-TC
ORDER NO. PSC-02-0722-PAA-TC
ISSUED: May 24, 2002

The following Commissioners participated in the disposition of

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AGENCY ACTION
ORDER CANCELING PAY TELEPHONE
CERTIFICATE INVOLUNTARILY

BY THE COMMISSION:

NOTICE is hereby given by the Florida Public Service Commission that the action discussed herein is preliminary in nature and will become final unless a person whose interests are substantially affected files a petition for a formal proceeding, pursuant to Rule 25-22.029, Florida Administrative Code.

Proline Communications Corporation (Proline Communications)
currently holds Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No.
4997, issued by the Commission on December 25, 1996, authorizing the provision of Pay Telephone service. The Division of the Commission Clerk and Administrative Services advised our staff that Proline Communications had not paid the Regulatory Assessment Fees
(RAFs) required by Section 364.336, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-4.0161, Florida Administrative Code, for the year 2001. Also, accrued statutory penalties and interest charges for late RAFs payments for the year 2001 had not been paid. Proline Communications was scheduled to remit its RAFs by January 30, 2002.

Pursuant to Section 364.336, Florida Statutes, certificate holders must pay a minimum annual RAF of $50 if the certificate was active during any portion of the calendar year. Pursuant to Rule 25-4.0161 (2), Florida Administrative Code, the form and applicable fees are due to the Florida Public Service Commission by January 30 of the subsequent year. Pursuant to Section 350.113(4), Florida Statutes, the RAFs forms, for the period of January 1, through December 31, are mailed to entities at least 45 days prior to the date that payment of the fee is due. All entities that apply for certification receive a copy of our rules governing Pay Telephone service.

On February 26, 2002, we received the company's 2001 RAF return showing zero revenues and a note which advised the company was out of business as of January 1, 2002. The company did not pay the minimum RAF. On March 4, 2002, our staff wrote the company and advised that prior to granting a voluntary cancellation, the company must be up-to-date on its RAFs, including statutory penalty and interest charges. Our staff advised the company to pay the 2001 RAF, statutory penalty and interest charges for the year 2001, and either pay the 2002 RAF or provide a date certain it would be paid.

As of the date of the vote, the outstanding RAF amount, including statutory penalty and interest charges, has not been paid and the company has not complied with Rule 25-24.514(2), Florida Administrative Code, which states:

(2) If a certificated company desires to cancel its certificate, it shall request cancellation from the Commission in writing and shall provide the following with its request:

(a) Statement of intent and date to pay Regulatory Assessment Fee.

(b) Statement of why the certificate is proposed to be cancelled.

Accordingly, since the company's certificate remains active until it requests a voluntary cancellation pursuant to Rule 25-24.514(2), Florida Administrative Code, or we involuntarily cancel the certificate, Proline Communications is responsible for the 2002 RAFs.

For the reasons described above, pursuant to Rule 25-24.514(1)(b) and (c), Florida Administrative Code, we deny Proline Communications' request for voluntary cancellation of Pay Telephone Certificate No. 4997 for failure to comply with the provisions of Rule 25-24.514(2), Florida Administrative Code. However, we find it appropriate to involuntarily cancel Proline Communications' certificate, effective February 26, 2002, for failure to pay RAFs pursuant to Section 364.336, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-4.0161, Florida Administrative Code.

Since Proline Communications is no longer in business, there would be no purpose in requiring Proline Communications to pay a penalty. By involuntarily canceling Proline Communications' certificate, however, we would be able to track this company should it apply for another certificate with us in the future. The cancellation of the certificate and the closing of the Docket in no way diminishes Proline Communications' obligation to pay applicable delinquent RAFs, statutory penalties, and interest charges. The collection of the past due fees shall be referred to the Office of the Comptroller for further collection efforts. If Proline Communications' certificate is canceled in accordance with this Order, Proline Communications shall immediately cease and desist providing Pay Telephone services in Florida. We are vested with jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Sections 364.336 and 364.285, Florida Statutes.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that we hereby deny Proline Communications Corporation's request for voluntary cancellation of Pay Telephone Certificate No. 4997. It is further

ORDERED that pursuant to Rule 25-24.514(1)(b) and (c), Florida Administrative Code, we hereby cancel Proline Communications Corporation's Pay Telephone Certificate No. '4997, effective

February 26, 2002, for failure to comply with Rule 25-24.514(2), Florida Administrative Code; Section 364.336, Florida Statutes; and Rule 25-4.0161, Florida Administrative Code. It is further ORDERED that the cancellation of the certificate in no way diminishes Proline Communications Corporation's obligation to pay applicable delinquent Regulatory Assessment Fees, and accrued statutory penalties and interest charges. The collection of the past due fees shall be referred to the Office of the Comptroller for further collection efforts. It is further ORDERED that if Proline Communications Corporation's certificate is canceled in accordance with this Order, Proline Communications Corporation shall immediately cease and desist providing Pay Telephone services in Florida. It is further ORDERED that the provisions of this Order, issued as proposed agency action, shall become final and effective upon the issuance of a Consummating Order unless an appropriate petition, in the form provided by Rule 28-106.201, Florida Administrative Code, is received by the Director, Division of the Commission Clerk and Administrative Services, 2540 Shumard Oak Boulevard, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0850, by the close of business on the date set forth in the "Notice of Further Proceedings" attached hereto. It is further ORDERED that in the event this Order becomes final, this docket shall be closed.
