In re: Application for certificate to operate water utility in Pasco County by HV Utility Systems, L.L.C.

DOCKET NO. 110022-WU
ORDER NO. PSC-11-0398-PCO-WU
ISSUED: September 21, 2011

ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

On January 7, 2011, Equity LifeStyle Properties, Inc., Hacienda Village (ELS) filed an Application for Certificate to Operate Water Utility in Pasco County by HV Utility Systems, L.L.C. (Application). On June 10, 2011, ELS sent notice of its Application to Pasco County (County) and the City of New Port Richey (City). On July 13, 2011, the County and City each filed an objection to ELS's Application and a petition for a formal administrative hearing (Petitions). ELS met informally with the County and City on July 27, 2011, and ELS states that the parties agreed to continue discussions in an effort to resolve issues raised in the Petitions. Accordingly, on July 28, 2011, ELS filed an Unopposed Motion for an Extension of Time to file a motion to dismiss the Petitions. By Order No. PSC-11-0333-PCO-WU, ELS was granted an extension of time until September 15, 2011, to file a motion to dismiss.

Second Motion for Extension of Time

On September 14, 2011, ELS filed a Second Unopposed Motion for an Extension of Time (Second Motion for Extension) to have an additional 90 days, or until December 15, 2011, to file a motion to dismiss. Also on September 14, 2011, ELS filed a Motion to Dismiss the County and City's Petitions (Motion to Dismiss) to preserve its right to file a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 28-106.204(2), Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.). In its Motion to Dismiss, ELS requested that the Commission take no action on the Motion to Dismiss until ruling on its Second Motion for Extension.

Analysis and Ruling

Upon review, ELS's Second Motion for Extension is hereby granted. Pursuant to Rule 28-106.204(6), F.A.C., a motion for an extension of time must be filed prior to the expiration of the deadline sought to be extended and shall state good cause for the request. ELS's Motion for Extension was filed on September 14, 2011, prior to the September 15, 2011 motion to dismiss deadline. Furthermore, ELS has stated good cause for granting it an extension until December 15, 2011, namely, the parties' ongoing efforts to resolve the issues raised in the County and City's Petitions without proceeding to hearing. It appears that no party will be prejudiced by an extension until December 15, 2011, no party objects to the extension, and the additional time will give all of the parties involved an opportunity to resolve their concerns. Accordingly, ELS shall have until December 15, 2011, to file a motion to dismiss.

Based on the foregoing, it is

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.569(1), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code; or (2) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Office of Commission Clerk, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
