In re: Consideration of the tax impacts associated with Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 for Duke Energy Florida, LLC.

DOCKET NO. 20180047-EI
ORDER NO. PSC-2018-0279-PCO-EI
ISSUED: June 1, 2018

FIRST ORDER REVISING ORDER ESTABLISHING PROCEDURE

The Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) opened Docket No. 20180047-EI on February 21, 2018, to consider the tax impacts affecting Duke Energy Florida, LLC (DEF) as a result of the passage of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. The Order Establishing Procedure, Order No. PSC-2018-0210-PCO-EI, was issued on April 25, 2018, in which controlling dates were set for filing testimony, exhibits, and discovery. On April 30, 2018, the Office of Public Counsel (OPC) filed a Motion for Emergency Hearing Concerning Scheduling and Discovery Procedures (Motion) in which it argued that it was unable to properly conduct discovery, prepare testimony, and prepare for hearing. OPC argues that its staff and consultants do not have enough time to adequately prepare for nine separate hearings<sup>1</sup> conducted in a two-week period. In its Motion, OPC represents that Tampa Electric Company (TECO), Duke Energy Florida, LLC (DEF), Florida Power & Light (FPL), and Peoples Gas have no objection to the Motion and that the Florida Industrial Users Group (FIPUG) supports the Motion.

On May 2, 2018, Order No. PSC-2018-0224-PCO-PU was issued requesting that OPC file a specific request for relief for which it seeks, including suggested time frames it proposes, since OPC did not propose a preferred hearing schedule in its Motion. On May 4, 2018, OPC filed its Additional Comment,<sup>2</sup> pursuant to Order No. PSC-2018-0224-PCO-PU, in which it stated that it was unable to provide exact time frames, but noted that only TECO stated that it requires a decision in 2018, and there are no statutory deadlines. Therefore, OPC has proposed that the other eight hearings be held during the months of January 2019-April 2019. The remaining tax dockets will be rescheduled and addressed by separate orders.

Upon review of the pleadings and consideration of OPC's arguments, Section IV, Subsection A(7), Discovery Procedures, of Order No. PSC-2018-0210-PCO-EI, is deleted and replaced with the following:

<sup>2</sup> On May 7, 2018, the Florida Retail Federation (FRF) filed a Motion to Intervene and Notice of Joinder in OPC's Motion and Additional Comment.

This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code; or (2) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Office of Commission Clerk, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code.
