DOCKET NO. 20200002-EG
ORDER NO. PSC-2020-0205-CFO-EG
ISSUED: June 24, 2020

ORDER GRANTING FLORIDA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY'S FOURTH REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION
OF INFORMATION PROVIDED PURSUANT TO AUDIT NO. 2012-010-4-3
(DOCUMENT NOS. 05085-2012, 05738-2012, AND 04617-2012)

On May 8, 2020, pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.), Florida Power & Light Company (FPL or Company) filed its Fourth Request for Extension of Confidential Classification (Fourth Request) of information provided pursuant to Audit No. 2012-010-4-3. Specifically, FPL seeks extended confidential classification of Document Nos. 05085-2012, 05738-2012, and 04617-2012.

Request for Confidential Classification

FPL's original request for confidential classification of information provided pursuant to Audit No. 2012-010-4-3 was granted by Order No. PSC-2012-0570-CFO-EG, issued on October 24, 2012. FPL's first request for extension of confidential treatment was granted by Order No. PSC-14-0492-CFO-EG, issued September 16, 2014. FPL's second request for extension of confidential classification was granted by Order No. PSC-16-0306-CFO-EG, issued July 28, 2016. FPL's third request for extension of confidential classification was granted by Order No. PSC-2018-0512-CFO-EG, issued October 22, 2018. In its Fourth Request, FPL states that the period of confidential classification granted by Order No. PSC-2018-0512-CFO-EG would soon expire, and that the information covered by that Order warrants continued treatment as proprietary and confidential business information within the meaning of Section 366.093, F.S., and Rule 25-22.006, F.A.C.

FPL contends that Document Nos. 05085-2012, 05738-2012, and 04617-2012, contain is competitively sensitive information, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information, as well as information that relates to customer-specific account information, which if disclosed would impair FPL's competitive interests. FPL avows that this information is intended to be and has been treated as confidential by the Company. FPL requests extension of confidential classification for an additional 18 months.

Ruling

Section 366.093(1), F.S., provides that records the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) has found to contain proprietary business information shall be kept confidential and shall be exempt from Chapter 119, F.S. Section 366.093(3), F.S., defines proprietary confidential business information as information that is intended to be and is treated by the company as private, in that disclosure of the information would cause harm to the company's ratepayers or business operations, and has not been voluntarily disclosed to the public. Section 366.093(3), F.S., provides that proprietary confidential business information includes, but is not limited to:

- (e) Information relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of information.

Upon review, it appears that the information, which was the subject of Order Nos. PSC-2012-0570-CFO-EG, PSC-16-0306-CFO-EG, and PSC-2018-0512-CFO-EG, continues to be proprietary confidential business information within the meaning of Section 366.093, F.S., to the same extent confidentiality was granted by the Commission's prior orders. The information contained in Document Nos. 05085-2012, 05738-2012, and 04617-2012, qualifies as proprietary confidential business information pursuant to Sections 366.093(3)(e), F.S., since it is information relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information. Accordingly, FPL's Fourth Request for extension of confidential classification of Document Nos. 05085-2012, 05738-2012 and 04617-2012 shall be granted.

Pursuant to Section 366.093(4), F.S., the information for which confidential classification is granted herein shall remain protected from disclosure for a period of up to 18 months from the date of issuance of this Order. At the conclusion of the 18-month period, the confidential information will no longer be exempt from Section 119.07(1), F.S., unless FPL or another affected person shows, and the Commission finds, that the records continue to contain proprietary confidential business information.

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED by Commissioner Andrew Giles Fay, as Prehearing Officer, that Florida Power & Light Company's Fourth Request for Extension of Confidential Classification of the information contained in Document Nos. 05085-2012, 05738-2012 and 04617-2012 is granted. It is further ORDERED that the information in Document Nos. 05085-2012, 05738-2012 and 04617-2012, for which confidential classification has been granted, shall remain protected from disclosure for a period of up to 18 months from the date of this Order. It is further ORDERED that this Order shall be the only notification by the Commission to the parties of the date of declassification of the materials discussed herein.

By ORDER of Commissioner Andrew Giles Fay, as Prehearing Officer, this 24th day of June, 2020.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.569(1), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code; or (2) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Office of Commission Clerk, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
