ORDER CLOSING DOCKET

BY THE COMMISSION:

Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company (Southern Bell) filed proposed revisions to its Access Tariff on July 5, 1990. The revision consisted of clarifications and textual changes meant to bring Southern Bell's intrastate access tariff more in line with its interstate counterpart. The tariff did not appear to contain any rate changes to existing customers, new services, or controversial contents.

MCI Telecommunications Corp. (MCI) filed a Petition to Reject, or to Suspend and Investigate Southern Bell's Proposed Revisions to its Access Tariff. MCI's Petition claimed that certain language in the proposed tariff concerning termination and move charges could adversely affect MCI.

MCI and Southern Bell met to discuss their concerns. The parties reached an agreement earlier this year. As a result of the agreement, Southern Bell made a minor change to the tariff and MCI withdrew its Petition. This change regarding the definition of the disconnect date for terminating service was minor and noncontroversial. The revised tariff proposal was filed and become effective on February 23, 1990.

Since MCI has withdrawn its Petition, this docket should now be closed.
