MCI'S RESPONSE TO SOUTHERN BELL'S
MOTIONS FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

MCI Telecommunications Corporation ("MCI") hereby responds to Southern Bell's motions for protective order filed on September 28, 1992, with respect to MCI's 1st Set of Interrogatories and MCI's 1st Request for Production of Documents to Southern Bell.

1. In both motions, Southern Bell asked that the Commission either enter a protective order directing that discovery of claimed confidential information not be had or requiring Southern Bell to provide such information only subject to an appropriate protective agreement with MCI.

2. On October 6, 1992, MCI entered into a protective agreement with Southern Bell relating to this claimed confidential information.

3. Southern Bell's request for an order directing that discovery not be had is therefore moot, since Southern Bell has agreed to produce the requested information subject to the terms of the protective agreement.

WHEREFORE, MCI requests that the Commission take no action on Southern Bell's motions for protective order on the grounds that its request for relief has become moot in light of the parties' execution of a protective agreement.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 8th day of October, 1992.
