SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY'S RESPONSE AND OBJECTIONS TO STAFF'S SIXTH REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
AND NOTICE OF INTENT TO REQUEST CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

COMES NOW BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company ("Southern Bell" or "Company"), and files pursuant to Rule 25-22.034, Florida Administrative Code, and Rule 25-22.006(3)(a), Florida Administrative Code, (1) its Response and Objections to Staff's Sixth Request for Production of Documents dated September 23, 1992 and (2) its Notice of Intent to Request Confidential Classification.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO REQUEST CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

Some of the documents that will be produced for the Staff in response to its Sixth Request for Production of Documents contain information which is exempted from public disclosure pursuant to §§ 119.07 and 364.183, Florida Statutes. Specifically, some of the documents contain, among other things, customer-specific information and other Company proprietary confidential business information. This information is included as proprietary confidential business information under § 364.183, Florida Statutes and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code. Because these documents contain exempt information, Southern Bell is filing this Notice of Intent to Request Confidential Classification, pursuant to Rule 25-22.006(3)(a), Florida

DOCKETED BY DATE

12667 OCT 28 1992

FPSC-RECORDS/REPORTING

Administrative Code, in order to allow the Staff access to these documents without delay. The original of this Notice has been filed with the Division of Records and Reporting, and a copy has been served on the division requesting this information.

GENERAL RESPONSE AND OBJECTIONS

1. Southern Bell objects to Staff's definition of "documents". Staff's definition of these terms is overly broad and is objectionable pursuant to standards adopted in Caribbean Security Systems v. Security Control Systems, Inc., 46 So.2d 654 (Fla. App. 3rd Dist. 1986).

2. Southern Bell does not believe it was Staff's intent to require Southern Bell to produce again the same documents previously produced in other dockets, but to the extent it does, Southern Bell objects on the basis that such a request would be unduly burdensome, oppressive and unnecessary, and for these reasons is prohibited.

3. Southern Bell objects to Staff's requests to the extent that they call for the production of privileged documents generated at the request of attorneys for Southern Bell. These privileged documents are not the proper subjects of discovery, inasmuch as they are subject to work product and attorney client privileges.

4. The following Specific Responses are given subject to the above-stated General Response and Objections.

SPECIFIC RESPONSES

5. In response to Request No. 102, Southern Bell will produce responsive documents in its possession, custody, or control at a mutually convenient time and place.

6. In response to Request No. 103, Southern Bell will produce responsive documents in its possession, custody, or control at a mutually convenient time and place.

7. In response to Request No. 104, Southern Bell will produce responsive documents in its possession, custody, or control at a mutually convenient time and place.

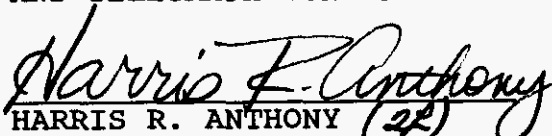

8. In response to Request No. 105, Southern Bell objects to this request on the basis that it calls for the production of proprietary confidential business information in the form of customer-specific information. This information is specifically considered exempt from the review and inspection provisions of § 119.07(1), Florida Statutes. Notwithstanding this objection, Southern Bell will produce responsive documents in its possession, custody, or control at a mutually convenient time and place subject to its Notice of Intent to Request Confidential Classification.

9. In response to Request No. 106, see response to Request No. 105. In addition, some of the responsive documents were generated at the request of counsel for Southern Bell, and are therefore not being produced. These documents relate to the MOOSA audit commissioned by the Legal Department which are subject to the attorney work product and attorney client privileges.

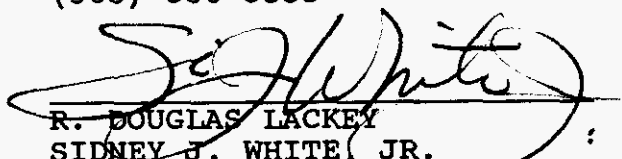

10. In response to Request No. 107, Southern Bell will produce responsive documents in its possession, custody, or control at a mutually convenient time and place.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of October, 1992.
