ORDER APPROVING TARIFF FILING

BY THE COMMISSION:

AT&T Communications of the Southern States, Inc. (ATT-C or the Company) requests approval to restructure its intrastate Conference Service rates. The Company asserts that by simplifying its rate structure it may be more competitive. The Company also proposes to move its conference service from its General Service tariff to its Custom Network Services tariff. The Company's Custom Network Services Tariff was designed for business services used by larger customers. Since ATT-C targets larger business clients with its Conference Service, the Company proposes that the service be moved from the General Services Tariff to the Custom Network Services Tariff.

Upon review, we find that ATT-C's proposal is aimed at Florida's business consumer. The interexchange carrier (IXC) market is recognized as being competitive and the rates proposed by ATT-C are not significantly different from those charged by other IXCs. Thus, we approve ATT-C's filing to restructure rates for Conference Service and move the offering to the Custom Network Services Tariff.

Therefore, it is

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.59(4), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

The Commission's decision on this tariff is interim in nature and will become final, unless a person whose substantial interests are affected by the action proposed files a petition for a formal proceeding, as provided by Rule 25-22.036(4), Florida Administrative Code, in the form provided by Rule 25-22.036(7)(a)(d) and (e), Florida Administrative Code. This petition must be received by the Director, Division of Records and Reporting at his office at 101 East Gaines Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0870, by the close of business on March 16, 1993.

In the absence of such a petition, this order shall become final on the day subsequent to the above date.

Any objection or protest filed in this docket before the issuance date of this Order is considered abandoned unless it satisfies the foregoing conditions and is renewed within the specified protest period.

If this Order becomes final on the date described above, any party adversely affected may request judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility or by the First District Court of Appeal in the case of a water or wastewater utility by filing a notice of appeal with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting and filing a copy of the notice of appeal and the filing fee with the appropriate court. This filing must be completed within thirty (30) days of the date this Order becomes final, pursuant to Rule 9.110, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. The notice of appeal must be in the form specified in Rule 9.900(a), Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
