Re: Items scheduled for June 8, 1993, Agenda Conference

Dear Chairman Deason:

As a result of plans made in March of this year, I am currently scheduled to leave Tallahassee on a transatlantic flight at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday June 8, 1993, the same date as the next scheduled conference. I am representing four different clients on matters which will be addressed at that Agenda Conference. Those item numbers, docket numbers, companies, and the cases involved are outlined below:

- Item No. 3 - Docket No. 930385-WS - Florida Waterworks Association Request for deposit interest rule change.
- Item No. 33 - Docket No. 930387-WS - Hydratech Utilities, Inc., late payment charge request.
- Item No. 35 - Docket No. 930455-WS - Royal Utility Company tariff matter.
- Item No. 39 - Docket No. 920148-WS - Jasmine Lakes Utilities Corporation, rate case- OPC Motion for Review of Prehearing Officer Order on Discovery.

When I first became aware that these items were scheduled to be addressed at the June 8, 1993, Agenda Conference several weeks ago, I informed Staff Counsel of the potential conflict with my flight and asked that each of these items be scheduled early in the Agenda. Apparently because of the normal categorization of items which appear before the Commission at Agenda Conferences, it was not possible to do so from the Staff level in advance.

I therefore request that you take whatever steps are necessary in order to hear items 3, 33, 35, and 39 sometime during the morning of the June 8, 1993, Agenda Conference so that I will not have to reeducate another member of my firm's staff on the issues related to these matters which I have handled exclusively on behalf of these clients. My inability to attend the Agenda on these matters would result in an inefficient use of my time, my client's time, and the Commission's time in receiving as a concise and accurate statement of the issues and positions related to these cases.

I would appreciate a prompt reply to this request so that I may make appropriate arrangements.

Sincerely,

ROSE, SUNDBSTROM & BENTLEY
