Ralph, has SSU filed any document that could be treated as a request for confidentiality of Kim Dismukes' supplemental direct testimony and exhibit (filed 3/4/96 by OPC as DN 02623-96). Kay

This is an addition to the earlier e-mail: Has SSU filed a document that could be treated as a request for conf. of Dismukes' 2nd supplemental direct testimony and exhibit (filed 3/25/96 by OPC as DN 03539-96). Kay

As I told you this morning in person, I have reviewed the above filings and have talked to Matt Feil of SSU. He advises me that neither the 3/4/96 or 3/25/96 filing needs to be treated as confidential. Specifically, for the letter from Laura A. Holquist to Ronald Sorenson, dated 12/14/93, SSU withdrew its 11th Motion for Temporary Protective Order. Also, for the other testimony, there is no direct reference to figures from the income tax return. Therefore, both filings are non-confidential. If you need anything else, please let me know.
