Market price is typically determined by prices charged by unrelated parties providing identical or similar products in an unregulated competitive market. The prices offered by Southern Communications to its current and potential non-associated customers are based upon market evaluations and assessments, taking into account competitive price structures, quality of service, dependability and reliability, area coverage, and various other factors and variables. To maintain long-term competitiveness within the wireless radio market, Southern Communications must at least meet its competitors' prices and/or product functionality and service quality.

1 During the first quarter of 1996, the prices charged to the associate company
2 customers of the Southern Company system were based upon a pricing structure
3 that is equal to or lower than prices and terms normally offered to unaffiliated
4 customers, having due regard to any differences in quality or quantity. At no time
5 did these charges exceed the actual cost of providing these services, as defined
6 under Rule 90 and 91 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the undersigned company has duly caused this certificate to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned thereunto duly authorized.
