Good morning, Mr. Herman. I'm responding to your e-mail concerning the information on our web page for TelCom Plus. We will be glad to add the suite number of 118 to the address and extension of 104 to Ms. Richey's phone number. (FYI, Ms. Richey responded in March to our annual information update request, and did not indicate these corrections at that time.)

Concerning "Mrs." rather than "Ms.": Since marital status is not information we must establish and maintain in the regulation of utilities, we use the standard abbreviation "Ms." when addressing women whose names are included in utility info.

As for the company name, a check in our records reveals that we incorrectly acknowledged a change in name to "Easy Cellular, Inc. d/b/a Telecom Plus" in Order PSC-97-1202-FOF-TP issued 10/3/97. An amendatory order acknowledging the correct name "Easy Cellular, Inc. d/b/a TelCom Plus" will be issued this week. FYI, the copy of the fictitious name certificate we received from the Florida Dept. of State lists the name as "TelCom Plus" rather than "Tel Com Plus."

Thank you for bringing these corrections to our attention. We want the utility information we maintain to be accurate, and we welcome any input that will help us increase our level of accuracy. Kay Flynn (kflynn@psc.state.fl.us) (850) 413-6744

Brad - please correct info in this docket. Thanks. Kay

This docket was opened by CMU in September to acknowledge a name change on IXC Cert 4773 from Easy Cellular, Inc. to Easy Cellular, Inc. d/b/a Telecom Plus. The order was issued in Oct (PSC-97-1202) and the docket was closed. We just discovered that the proper spelling of the fictitious name is Telcom Plus (not Telecom Plus). Can an a-order be issued to correct this typo? Kay

Chip,
While surfing for information on the web about our company, I noticed some things wrong with one of your pages.
<http://www2.scri.netpsc/mcd/TX0057.html> The company name is Tel Com Plus not Telecom Plus. The suite number is 118, none is listed. Julie is married Thus, Mrs. not Ms. and her extension number is 104 none is listed. I don't know how important any of this is to you, but I thought I'd let you know.

Mike Herman
Director of Operation
Tel Com Plus

Thanks very much for the information update; I will forward this on to our records and reporting division ((850) 413-6770) for further processing.
FYI, the information on our rweb site for each company is usually obtained via an annual letter we mail to each company asking for any updates/corrections.
