RE: Nextel South Corp. Response to Data Request in Docket No. 981444-TP, Number Utilization Study: Investigation Into Number Conservation Measures

Dear Ms. Bayo:

In response to the September 24, 1999 letter from the Florida Public Service Commission ("PSC"), Nextel Communications, Inc. ("Nextel"), on behalf of its wholly-owned subsidiary Nextel South Corp., respectfully submits an original and 15 copies of the enclosed Notice of Intent to Request Confidential Classification of Nextel's response to the PSC's data request in the above-referenced proceeding. Nextel has enclosed, pursuant to Section 364.183 of the Florida Statutes and Rule 25-22.006 of the Florida Administrative Code, a separate sealed envelope containing information for which Nextel is seeking confidential treatment. Because all of the requested information is confidential and proprietary in nature, a redacted version of the response would have redacted all of the submitted data. Therefore, Nextel has not provided separate, redacted versions of the responses, and seeks confidential treatment of all information submitted herein.

On October 12, 1999, Nextel submitted a response to the PSC's September 24, 1999 letter, stating that Nextel could not respond to the PSC's data request without an assurance that the submitted information would be treated confidentially. As a result of that letter, Nextel was instructed to submit the information to you, pursuant to Section 364.183 and Rule 25-22.006. Due to the delay in obtaining an assurance of confidential treatment and the time required to put together the requested information, Nextel is submitting this information today.

This notice of intent was filed in a docketed matter by or on behalf of a telecommunications company for Confidential Document No. 13351-99. The confidential material has been placed in locked storage pending staff advice on handling.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO REQUEST
CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

Pursuant to Section 364.183 of the Florida Statutes and Rule 25-22.006 of the Rules of the Florida Administrative Code, Nextel Communications, Inc. ("Nextel"), on behalf of Nextel South Corp., its wholly-owned subsidiary operating in the State of Florida, respectfully submits this Notice of Intent to Request Confidential Classification ("Notice"). This Notice is being filed in connection with Nextel's submission of information in response to a September 24, 1999 data request of the Florida Public Service Commission ("PSC") in the above-referenced docket.

In the September 24 letter, the PSC sought specific information regarding Nextel's NXX code assignments in the State of Florida, including current number usage, projected average monthly growth and utilization data based on 1,000 number blocks. The current and projected use of telephone numbers by a Commercial Mobile Radio Services provider is "proprietary confidential business information" as defined in Section 264.183(3) of the Florida Statutes. Such information is intended by Nextel to be private information as it is sensitive, proprietary and confidential in nature. Public disclosure of the submitted information would be of commercial or competitive value to others to Nextel's detriment by providing them specific knowledge of Nextel's current subscriber base and its projected growth in the State of Florida.

Therefore, in accordance with Rule 25-22.066, Nextel is submitting one copy of the requested proprietary information, which Nextel's Notice is intended to cover, to the Division of Records and Reporting in a separate, sealed envelope. All of the numbering information requested by the PSC is proprietary, confidential information under Section 364.183(3). Therefore, pursuant to Section 25-22.006, Nextel is seeking confidential treatment of its entire data submission.

By submitting the requested information to the PSC with this Notice, Nextel shall not be deemed to have waived the confidentiality of the information.

Respectfully submitted,
