Debtor

The person, corporation or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor.

Creditor

A creditor is any person, corporation or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed.

Proof of Claim

A form identifying the amount a creditor believes was owed to it by the debtor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (i.e., the amount of the creditor's claim).

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (i.e., collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property.

Examples of liens are mortgages on real estate and security interests in cars, trucks, boats, television sets or other items of property. A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before the bankruptcy case began; in some states a court judgment is a lien. In addition, to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (i.e., has a right of setoff), the creditor's claim may be a secured claim. (See also Unsecured Claim.)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not a secured claim, it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien does not have sufficient value to satisfy the creditor in full.

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority under the Bankruptcy Code and are paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims). The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form. Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims.

1. Basis for Claim:

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed. If the type of debt is not listed, check "Other" and briefly describe the type of debt. If you were an employee of the debtor, fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid.

2. Date Debt Incurred:

Fill in the date when the debt first was owed by the debtor.

3. Court Judgments:

A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, above).

6. Unsecured Priority Claim

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured priority claim and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, above). A claim may be partly a priority claim and partly a nonpriority claim if, for example, the claim is in an amount exceeding the amount given priority by the law. Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim.

7. Credits:

By signing this proof of claim, you are stating under oath that, in calculating the amount of your claim, you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor.

8. Supporting Documents:

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or that any asserted security interests have been perfected. If these documents are too lengthy, a summary of such documents must be provided. If documents are not available, you must attach a statement explaining why they are not available.

NOTICE OF BAR DATE TO FILE PROOFS OF CLAIM

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court") has entered an Order establishing April 30, 2001 as the last date to file proofs of claim for the purpose of asserting claims against any of the above-captioned debtors (the "Debtors") that arose before November 14, 2000 (the "Petition Date"). A one-page proof of claim form has been included with this Notice for your convenience.

1. You need not file a proof of claim if you do not dispute the amount or characterization of your claim as listed on the Debtors' schedules of liabilities, as amended (the "Schedules") and the Schedules do not list your claim as contingent, unliquidated or disputed. If your claim is listed on the Schedules, the upper right-hand corner of the attached proof of claim form shows how the Schedules list your claim.

2. You should not file a proof of claim if your claim (a) is based solely on your holding or ownership of Senior Discount Notes issued by ICG Holdings, Inc., or ICG Services, Inc.,¹ (this exception does not apply to the respective indenture trustees of the Senior Discount Notes) or (b) has been previously allowed or paid by order of the Bankruptcy Court.

3. If you own or hold any of the Debtors' stock or other equity securities (whether preferred or common stock), you need not file a proof of interest solely on account of your ownership interest or possession of such equity securities.

¹ The Debtors have the following debentures (collectively, the "Senior Discount Notes") outstanding: (1) 9 7/8% Senior Discount Notes due 2008 issued by ICG Services, Inc.; (2) 10% Senior Discount Notes due 2008 issued by ICG Services, Inc.; (3) 11 5/8% Senior Discount Notes due 2007 issued by ICG Holdings, Inc.; (4) 12 1/2% Senior Discount Notes due 2006 issued by ICG Holdings, Inc.; and (5) 13 1/5% Senior Discount Notes due 2005 issued by ICG Holdings, Inc.

4. If you wish to submit a rejection damages claim arising from the Debtors' rejection during these chapter 11 cases of an executory contract or unexpired lease, such proof of claim must be filed by the later of (a) thirty days after the date of the Bankruptcy Court's order authorizing the rejection of such contract or lease or (b) the Bar Date (as defined below). Any other claims arising before the Petition Date under any leases or contracts of the Debtors must be filed by the Bar Date.

5. You should not file a proof of claim if you do not have a claim against any of the Debtors. That you received this Notice does not mean that you have such a claim or that either the Debtors or the Bankruptcy Court believe that you have such a claim. Moreover, the Debtors or their attorneys cannot tell you whether you have such a claim or whether you should file a proof of claim.

6. If you decide to file a proof of claim, you must complete a proof of claim form and deliver it by mail, hand delivery or overnight courier, together with any supporting documentation for your claim to the Claims Agent appointed by the Bankruptcy Court at the following address:

ICG Communications, Inc.
Claims Processing Dept.
c/o Logan & Company, Inc.
546 Valley Road
Upper Montclair, New Jersey 07043

7. You must file your claim against the particular Debtor against which you believe you have a claim. If you wish to assert claims against more than one Debtor, you must file a separate proof of claim in the case of each Debtor against which you believe you hold a claim. You may request additional proof of claim forms from the Claims Agent at telephone number (973) 509-3190.

8. Each signed original proof of claim form must be ACTUALLY RECEIVED by the Claims Agent on or before 4:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on April 30, 2001. The Claims Agent shall reject any facsimile or electronic submissions.

9. If you are required to submit a proof of claim to preserve your claim against any of the Debtors and the Claims Agent does not actually receive your original proof of claim in the manner described above on or before the Bar Date or other applicable deadline, you shall be forever barred from asserting any such claim against any of the Debtors or their successors or assigns, and you will be barred from receiving any distribution made during these chapter 11 cases by the Debtors to their creditors.

10. The ICG Communications, Inc. Claims Processing Department may be contacted at (973) 509-3190 if there are questions about the filing, amount, nature, or processing of a proof of claim.
