

BEFORE THE FLORIDA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In re: Petition for approval of Commercial/Industrial Service
Rider tariff by Tampa Electric Company.

DOCKET NO. 980706-EI
ORDER NO. PSC-01-0922-CFO-EI
ISSUED: April 10, 2001

ORDER GRANTING CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION TO TAMPA ELECTRIC COMPANY'S SUPPLEMENTAL SURVEILLANCE REPORT/COMMERCIAL/INDUSTRIAL
SERVICE RIDER FOR JANUARY, 2001 (DOCUMENT NO. 03349-01)

Pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes, and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, Tampa Electric Company (TECO or Company) has requested specified confidential treatment for certain information contained in TECO's Supplemental Surveillance Report pertaining to its Commercial/Industrial Service Rider (CISR) for January, 2001. The confidential information is filed with the Commission as Document No. 03349-01.

TECO contends that release of the information contained in the Supplemental Surveillance Report could cause harm to both TECO and any entity that has entered into the Contract Service Agreement (CSA) contract. TECO maintains that the information for which confidential classification is sought, is intended to be, and is treated by TECO as private, and has not been publicly disclosed. Accordingly, the Company requests that the information be granted confidential classification pursuant to Section 366.093(3)(e), Florida Statutes.

INFORMATION FOR WHICH CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION IS SOUGHT

TECO asserts that its Supplemental Surveillance Report for January, 2001, contains two highlighted dollar amounts which, if publicly disclosed, would be harmful to TECO and its customers and would contravene the Company's tariff by publicly disclosing information concerning amounts paid by a CISR customer, pursuant to a CSA negotiated pursuant to TECO's CISR tariff. TECO maintains that this is highly proprietary information which would harm the Company's ability to negotiate in the future with any customers requesting CISR negotiations. Additionally, TECO contends that disclosure of this information would enable anyone in the public to calculate the CISR rate TECO has negotiated with a CISR customer and as such, discourage at-risk customers from seeking CISR negotiations. Therefore, TECO maintains that the information contained in its Supplemental Surveillance Report is entitled to confidential protection under Section 366.093, Florida Statutes.

CONCLUSION

Upon review, the information described above appears to be proprietary, confidential business information within the meaning of Section 366.093(3), Florida Statutes. Therefore, TECO's request for confidential classification of information contained in its Supplemental Surveillance Report/Commercial Industrial Service Rider for January, 2001, is granted.

Section 366.093(4), Florida Statutes, provides that "any finding by the Commission that records contain proprietary confidential business information is effective for a period not to exceed 18 months, unless good cause is shown for a specified longer period." TECO did not specify a time period in its request. Therefore, this information shall be granted confidential classification for a period of 18 months from the date of issuance of this Order.

It is therefore

ORDERED by Commissioner Braulio L. Baez, as Prehearing Officer, that the request by Tampa Electric Company that the information contained in its Supplemental Surveillance Report/Commercial Industrial Service Rider for January, 2001, be granted confidential classification, is approved. It is further ORDERED that the information described within the body of this Order and contained in Document No. 03349-01 shall be granted confidential classification for a period of 18 months from the date of the issuance of this Order. It is further
