5. Appended to this Request as Attachment D are two copies of the rebuttal testimony and exhibits of Dr. Phillips and Mr. Namoff and the rebuttal testimony of Mr. Palmer, with the confidential information redacted.

6. The information in the rebuttal testimony for which confidential classification is requested by Allied/CFI concerns terms negotiated between Tampa Electric Company ("TECO") and Allied/CFI, and between TECO and Odyssey Manufacturing Company ("Odyssey") and Odyssey's affiliate, Sentry Industries, Inc. ("Sentry"), for discounted rates for electric service under TECO's Commercial/Industrial Service Rider ("CISR") tariff. Testimony concerning this subject should be granted confidential classification, consistent with prior Orders in this proceeding interpreting the confidentiality terms of original Sheet Number 6.720 of TECO's CISR tariff subject to the requirements of Section 366.093(3), Florida Statutes. This information has been treated as confidential by the parties to this proceeding and has not been publicly disclosed, and the parties have agreed to maintain the confidentiality of this information pursuant to the Protective Agreement.

7. Allied/CFI has treated the information for which confidential classification is requested as private and this information has not been publicly disclosed.

8. By inadvertence, this Request was not filed within the time provided by Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code. However, throughout this proceeding the confidentiality of the information which is the subject of this Request has been consistently maintained. In order to preserve the confidentiality of this information as provided in prior orders, this Request should be granted notwithstanding Allied/CFI's inadvertent error.

9. The original of this Request is being filed with the Division of Records and Reporting and a copy is being served on all parties of record.

WHEREFORE, Allied/CFI request that the Commission enter an Order declaring the information described above and set forth in Attachment A to be proprietary business information that is entitled to confidential classification for the purposes of this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,
