Case No. SC 96439

Lower Tribunal Case No: 990869-TL

2-pages

APPELLANT'S MOTION TO ACCEPT
MOTION FOR REHEARING ADDENDUM
AND
RESPONSE TO APPELLEE'S REPLY

THE APPELLANT RESPECTFULLY MOVES THIS COURT to accept the above described MOTION on the following grounds:

- 1) The information contained therein is essential to the proper administration of justice in this case.
- 2) The information addresses the critical issue brought before this Court by the Appellee which is the 7th Circuit Court precedent id Whitaker v Ameritech with facts that were not available until recently when the the Appellant became the owner of his granddaughter's old computer and subsequently learned how to use it. Without question, the computer helped to "level the playing field" between adversaries in this action.
- 3) The Appellant stipulates herein that he is a non-lawyer and unable to compete with his adversaries in matters pertaining to court procedure and he begs the indulgence of the Court and the Appellee insofar as that deficiency.

THE APPELLANT has no objection to allowing the APPELLEE whatever time is required to prepare to argue this MOTION, but begs the parties to focus on the facts and law rather than procedure. This issue is extremely important to a population of elderly citizens on fixed income and who suffer severe consequences as a result of the loss of telephone service even for a limited amount of time. It is too important an issue to succumb to the influence of politics or the impact of language out of form books.
