Dear Mr. Klamer:

As part of my duties, I open dockets for nonpayment of the Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF). In this case, the Commission did receive your RAF return for the calendar year 2000 for both your IXC and ALEC certificates, however, there was no check for the minimum amounts enclosed. A copy of your 2000 returns is enclosed.

The RAF is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year and is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. The RAF is .0015% of a company's total revenues or $50, whichever is greater. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable. If payment is postmarked by June 29, 2001, the 2000 total is $65.00 ($50.00 fee, $12.50 penalty, and $2.50 interest) for each certificate.

I will hold off opening a docket to fine your company $500 for each certificate for nonpayment of the RAF until June 26, 2001 to allow you time to come into compliance with Rule 25-4.0161, Florida Administrative Code. In the meantime, if you have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us, or at the address below.

Sincerely,

Re: WorkNet Communications Inc.

Dear Mr. Klamer:

On March 22, 2001, the Commission received a letter from Mr. Joshua Avigad, Assistant General Counsel, requesting cancellation of WorkNet's interexchange carrier and alternative local exchange carrier certificates in Florida. Mr. Avigad requested that we contact you with any concerns.

There are two kinds of cancellations. The first is voluntary, which is normally granted if the company is in good standing with the Commission and does not have a past due balance of the regulatory assessment fee (RAF), including statutory penalty and interest charges. The other is involuntary. If a company is not in good standing and has an outstanding balance of the RAF, the Commission normally cancels the certificate on its own motion for a rule violation. Any balance owed is forwarded to the Comptroller's Office for collection.

The regulatory assessment fee is assessed if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year. The RAF is due by January 30 of each year, unless the 30th falls on a weekend, then the fee is due by the next working day, for the previous year. If payment for the RAF is mailed after the due date, then statutory penalty and interest charges are applicable.

According to Commission records, WorkNet has not paid the 2000 RAFs for either certificate. Depending upon when your check is postmarked, penalty and interest charges could continue to accrue. For example, if the company owes the minimum, and if payment is postmarked by April 30, the amount due for each certificate is $59.00 ($50.00 fee, $7.50 penalty, and $1.50 interest), or a total of $118.00 for the 2000 RAFs.

The effective date of a voluntary cancellation is the date that the Commission received a company's request for cancellation. In this case, the Commission did not receive your request until March 22, 2001, therefore, the company will owe the 2001 RAF, even if the company is no longer in business or, in fact, never went into business. Rules 25-24.474 and 25-24.820, Florida Administrative Code, provides that a company requesting voluntary cancellation must either pay the 2001 RAF or provide a date certain that it will be paid. For example, within 30 days after the Commission Order is issued granting the voluntary cancellation. The company may want to go ahead and pay the 2001 fees when the past due amount is paid. If the company needs the 2001 RAF return forms for both certificates, please let me know.

Therefore, based on the above information, I cannot recommend a voluntary cancellation of your certificate unless the past due balance is paid. Please respond in writing within 15 days from the date of this letter and let me know how you wish to proceed. In the meantime, if you have any questions, just let me know. I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, by internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us, or at the above address.
