Re: Docket No. 010588-TC

To Whom it May Concern:

I have just received today your order number PSC-01-1757-PAA-TA which was issued August 29, 2001 regarding my fathers business Telcommunications. I am still acting as Power of Attorney for my father. Unfortunately, I have not received an actual accounting of what the RAF amounts for 2000 and 2001 are, or even what the actual amount that my father owes is.

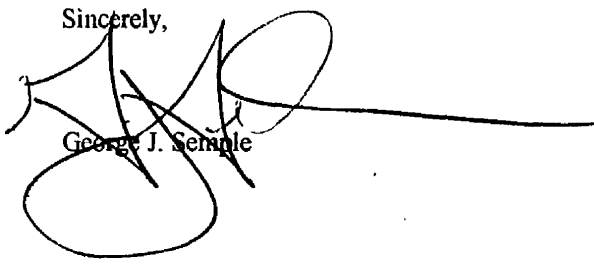

My father's original letter dated 14 May, 2001 stated not only his intent to cancel the certificate but also the reason why the certificate was requested to cancel (he never operated the business). Unfortunately he apparently did not also include the RAF payment information in that letter. In your most recent summary it stated that the past due amount was sent to me via e-mail. Unfortunately, due to a move, I did not receive that information. I would like to handle this matter as expeditiously as possible.

My understanding from the letter is that the proposed fine has been forgiven and I appreciate that. I am enclosing a check for $100. which is intended to be the RAF payment for the years 2000 and 2001. Having not received an actual bill or statement this is the best I have been able to guess that he actually owes. If you could send another statement, reflecting this payment, and any other amount still due I would appreciate it.

Any further correspondence should be addressed to:

Thank you for your timely attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

George J. Semple
