Global Crossing
Telecommunications, Inc.
regarding practices in reporting of percent interstate usage for compensation for jurisdictional access services.

DOCKET NO. 011378-TP
ORDER NO. PSC-01-2327-PCO-TP
ISSUED: November 29, 2001

ORDER ON MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

On October 19, 2001, BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. (BellSouth) filed its Complaint against Global Crossing Telecommunications, Inc. (Global Crossing), regarding practices in reporting percent interstate usage for compensation for jurisdictional access services. On November 13, 2001, Global Crossing filed and served its Motion to Dismiss on BellSouth. Under Rules 28-106.204(5) and 28-106.103, Florida Administrative Code, BellSouth's response is due on November 26, 2001 (seven (7) days from service plus five (5) days for U.S. mail).

On November 21, 2001, BellSouth filed its Motion for Extension of Time to file a response to Global Crossing's Motion to Dismiss. Due to the Thanksgiving holidays and because Global Crossing's Motion is voluminous and contains several arguments, BellSouth states that a seven (7) day extension of time is necessary to allow BellSouth to adequately respond. BellSouth alleges that Global Crossing's counsel represented to BellSouth that Global Crossing would consent to this extension of time.

Upon consideration, it appears reasonable and appropriate to extend the response date as requested by Petitioner. Accordingly, the filing date for BellSouth's response to Global Crossing's Motion to Dismiss is extended until December 3, 2001.

Based on the foregoing, it is,

ORDERED by the Florida Public Service Commission that BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc.'s Motion for Extension of Time for filing its response to Global Crossing Telecommunications, Inc.'s Motion to Dismiss is approved. The date is hereby extended until December 3, 2001.

NOTICE OF FURTHER PROCEEDINGS OR JUDICIAL REVIEW

The Florida Public Service Commission is required by Section 120.569(1), Florida Statutes, to notify parties of any administrative hearing or judicial review of Commission orders that is available under Sections 120.57 or 120.68, Florida Statutes, as well as the procedures and time limits that apply. This notice should not be construed to mean all requests for an administrative hearing or judicial review will be granted or result in the relief sought.

Mediation may be available on a case-by-case basis. If mediation is conducted, it does not affect a substantially interested person's right to a hearing.

Any party adversely affected by this order, which is preliminary, procedural or intermediate in nature, may request: (1) reconsideration within 10 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.0376, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by a Prehearing Officer; (2) reconsideration within 15 days pursuant to Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code, if issued by the Commission; or (3) judicial review by the Florida Supreme Court, in the case of an electric, gas or telephone utility, or the First District Court of Appeal, in the case of a water or wastewater utility. A motion for reconsideration shall be filed with the Director, Division of Records and Reporting, in the form prescribed by Rule 25-22.060, Florida Administrative Code. Judicial review of a preliminary, procedural or intermediate ruling or order is available if review of the final action will not provide an adequate remedy. Such review may be requested from the appropriate court, as described above, pursuant to Rule 9.100, Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.
