TAMPA ELECTRIC COMPANY'S REQUEST FOR RETURN OF CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE,
FOR AN EXTENSION OF THE CONFIDENTIAL PROTECTION
AFFORDED SUCH DOCUMENTS BY THE COMMISSION

Tampa Electric Company ("Tampa Electric" or "the company") files this its request for return of certain confidential documents provided by the parties to this Commission or, in the alternative, its request for an extension of the confidential classification afforded such documents by the Commission and, as grounds therefor, says:

1. During the course of the proceeding below Tampa Electric and the other parties to this proceeding requested and were granted confidential designation of various documents pursuant to orders of the Commission authorizing confidential treatment for an initial term of 18 months. Certain of those terms are about to expire and Tampa Electric desires continuing confidential treatment of the information in question.

2. The following orders grant in whole or in part the confidential treatment requested by Tampa Electric and the other parties to this proceeding:

(18-MONTH CONFIDENTIALITY DEADLINE ENDS APRIL 16, 2002)

(18-MONTH CONFIDENTIALITY DEADLINE ENDS JUNE 29, 2002)

PSC-01-1442-CFO-EI	JUL 5, 2001
(18-MONTH CONFIDENTIALITY DEADLINE ENDS MAY 16, 2003)
PSC-01-2251-CFO-EI	NOV 16, 2001
PSC-01-2252-CFO-EI	NOV 16, 2001
PSC-01-2253-CFO-EI	NOV 16, 2001

3. The Prehearing Order in this case, Order No. PSC-01-0401-PHO-EI, issued February 16, 2001, states:

If a determination of confidentiality has been made and the information was not entered into the record of the proceeding it shall be returned to the person providing the information within the time periods set forth in Section 366.093, Florida Statutes.

4. Section 366.093(2), Florida Statutes, provides in pertinent part:

. . . Any record which has been determined to be proprietary confidential information and is not entered into the official record of the proceeding must be returned to the person providing the record within 60 days after the final order, . . .

This matter did not proceed to hearing but, instead, was settled by the parties with the Commission entering its order approving settlement agreement, Order No. PSC-01-1003-AS-EI on April 24, 2001. This docket was closed on September 24, 2001 by Order No. PSC-01-2513-PCO-EI.

5. Pursuant to Section 366.093(2), Florida Statutes, Tampa Electric respectfully requests that the Commission return all of the items of information granted confidential treatment pursuant to the above orders which were not entered into the record to the party providing the confidential information. Tampa Electric makes this request to protect all confidential records the disclosure of which may adversely affect Tampa Electric even though supplied to the Commission on a confidential basis by Allied, CFI or Odyssey. This will be the easiest way to prevent these documents from becoming public record and thereby disclosing their confidential content.

Alternative Request for Extension of Confidential Treatment

6. Tampa Electric Company requests that all of the documents granted confidential treatment in the above listed orders continue to be treated as confidential for 18 months from the expiration date of the initial 18 month period provided in the above orders.

7. Tampa Electric has reviewed all of the documents it supplied on a confidential basis which were granted confidential treatment in the above orders and has determined that the information continues to require confidential treatment because of the sensitivity of the information and the continuing nature of the CISR agreements that were at issue in this proceeding. Tampa Electric incorporates by reference the justifications it presented and the justifications that either Allied, CFI and Odyssey presented in support of the requested 18-month extension. Certain of the documents supplied by Odyssey, Allied and CFI were the subjects of requests for confidential treatment for the protection of Tampa Electric and its confidential CISR negotiations. For that reason, Tampa Electric seeks an 18-month extension of confidential treatment of all confidential requests granted in the proceeding below so as not to inadvertently omit Tampa Electric's sensitive documents that were supplied by other parties.

8. It is hoped that all of the documents deemed confidential by the Commission in the above proceeding can be returned to the party who supplied them and requested confidential treatment for the expiration of the 18-month extensions of confidential treatment requested herein.

WHEREFORE, Tampa Electric respectfully requests that all information deemed by the Commission to be confidential in the above-listed orders and which was not made a part of the record of this proceeding be returned to the supplying party, pursuant to Section 366.093(2), Florida Statutes, and, in the alternative, that the confidential classification period described in each of the above orders be extended for a period of 18 months beyond the expiration dates of the initial 18 month periods provided in the above orders or until the individual items are returned to the party who provided them, whichever first occurs.

DATED this 15th day of April 2002.

Respectfully submitted,
