Dear Ms. Gaynor:

The Commission received your note on the 2001 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) form which stated "final", along with your check for the $50 minimum. However, you did not include statutory penalty and interest charges, which are applicable if payment is made after the due date of January 30th. Therefore, before I can recommend a voluntary cancellation, the company must pay the past due penalty and interest in the amount of $9.00 for late payment of the 2001 RAF and comply with Rule 25-24.514(2), Florida Administrative Code, copy enclosed.

Although you stated the 2001 RAF was your final return, the Commission was not notified until this year. Therefore, the 2002 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) is applicable. The RAF is applicable if a certificate is active for any one day during a calendar year, even if a company was not operating or had any revenues during that period. A copy of the 2002 RAF return form is enclosed in case you want to go ahead and send in the minimum $50 RAF.

As information, the alternative to a voluntary cancellation is an involuntary cancellation. The difference between the two types of cancellations is that if the Commission cancels your certificate involuntarily, any unpaid RAFs will be turned over to collections.

Please review this information and let me know by May 16, 2002, how you wish to proceed. In the meantime, if you have any questions, please contact me at (850) 413-6502-voice, (850) 413-6503-fax, at the address below, or via internet e-mail at pisler@psc.state.fl.us.
