INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In particular types of cases or circumstances such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor

The person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor.

Creditor

A creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed.

Proof of Claim

A form filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court where the bankruptcy case was filed, to tell the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim). This form must be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court where the bankruptcy case was filed

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim if the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property.

Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car, truck, boat, television set or other item of property. A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before the bankruptcy case began. In some states a court judgment is a lien. In addition, to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff), the creditor's claim may be a secured claim. (See also Unsecured Claim)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not a secured claim it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full.

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority, so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims). The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form. Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filed in)

Court, Name of Debtor and Case Number:

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case, and the bankruptcy case number. If you received a notice of the case from the court, all of this information is near the top of the notice.

Information about Creditor:

Complete the section giving the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property, and the debtor's account number, if any. If anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt, if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case, if your address differs from that to which the court sent notice, or if this proof of claim replaces or changes a proof of claim that was already filed, check the appropriate box on the form.

1. Basis for Claim:

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed. If the type of debt is not listed, check "Other" and briefly describe the type of debt. If you were an employee of the debtor, fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid.

2. Date Debt Incurred:

Fill in the date when the debt first was owed by the debtor.

3. Court Judgments:

If you have a court judgment for this debt, state the date the court entered the judgment.

4. Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed:

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim. If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of claim are included, check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges.

5. Secured Claim:

Check the appropriate place if the claim is a secured claim. You must state the type and value of the property that is collateral for the claim, attach copies of the documentation of your lien, and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS, above).

6. Unsecured Priority Claim:

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured priority claim, and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, above). A claim may be partly priority and partly nonpriority if, for example, the claim is for more than the amount given priority by the law. Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim.

7. Credits:

By signing this proof of claim, you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor.

8. Supporting Documents:

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or, if the documents are too lengthy, a summary of those documents. If documents are not available, you must attach an explanation of why they are not available.

Definition of “Claim”

For the purposes of the Order, the term “Claim” has the meaning set forth in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. Under section 101(5), a “Claim” is given the broadest possible meaning and includes, without limitation, (a) any right to payment, whether arising in contract, tort, or by statute, and whether or not reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured, regardless of whether or not actual injury has or has not yet been manifested or actual losses have or have not yet been incurred; and (b) equitable remedies for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured, and regardless of whether or not actual injury has or has not yet been manifested or actual losses have or have not yet been incurred.

The Bar Date is the Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim Against the Debtors

As summarized in this Notice, the Order specifies who must file a proof of Claim in the Bankruptcy Cases. If You Are Required To But Do Not File A Proof Of Claim That Is Actually Received By The Claims Agent By The Bar Date, Any Proof Of Claim That You File After The Bar Date Will Be Disallowed, Deemed Null And Void, And Forever Barred, except as otherwise specifically ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Any Entity That Is Required To But Does Not File A Proof Of Claim By The Bar Date Will Be Forever Barred From: (i) Filing A Proof Of Claim With Respect To Such Claim; (ii) Asserting Such Claim(s) Against The Debtors Or Their Estates Or Property; (iii) Voting On Any Plan Of Reorganization Filed In These Cases; (iv) Participating In Any Distribution In The Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases On Account Of Such Claim(s); And Will Not Be Entitled To Receive Further Notices Regarding The Bankruptcy Cases.

The Order provides that you have an affirmative duty to review this Notice and the accompanying documents and, if necessary, to file a proof of Claim. You should not rely upon your agents and/or attorneys to meet the deadlines or satisfy the other obligations required of claimants by the Order with respect to the filing of a proof of Claim. However, you are strongly advised to consult with an attorney and/or financial professional in determining whether to file a proof of Claim in the Bankruptcy Cases.

Who Must File a Proof of Claim

Pursuant to the Order and section 1111(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a proof of Claim is deemed filed with respect to any Claim that appears in Schedule D (Schedule of Creditors Holding Secured Claims), Schedule E (Schedule of Creditors Holding Unsecured Priority Claims), or Schedule F (Schedule of Creditors Holding Unsecured Nonpriority Claims) of any of the Debtors’ “Schedules of Assets and Liabilities” (the “Schedules”) (a) in a liquidated amount and (b) that is not designated therein as a contingent or disputed claim (such Claims are referred to as “Scheduled Claims”).

You Must File A Proof Of Claim If You Assert A Claim Against The Debtors And: (a) You Disagree With The Amount Of Your Scheduled Claim, If Any; (b) Your Scheduled Claim Is Identified As Disputed, Contingent, Unliquidated, Or In An Amount Of $0; (c) No Scheduled Claim Has Been Listed On Your Behalf; Or (d) You Believe That Your Scheduled Claim, If Any, Is Secured Or Entitled To A Priority Under The Bankruptcy Code, And Such Claim Is Not So Identified In The Schedules.

A proof of Claim form that may indicate whether, and to what extent, the Debtors have listed a Scheduled Claim on your behalf accompanies the copy of this Notice that was mailed to you. Please carefully read the instructions that accompany the form proof of Claim. If you choose to file a proof of Claim, such filed proof of Claim will supersede any Scheduled Claim previously listed on your behalf.

All proofs of Claim previously filed with the Claims Agent prior to the mailing of this Notice will be treated as properly-filed Claims, subject to the right of the Debtors, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"), and other parties in interest to object to the allowance thereof. If you previously have filed a proof of Claim, you do not need to file another proof of claim at this time.

How to File a Proof of Claim

Except as provided below, all proofs of Claim must be filed so that they are actually received by the official Claims Agent on or before 5:00 p.m. EDT on the Bar Date (October 18, 2002). It is your responsibility to ensure that your proof of Claim is actually received by that date and time.

Proofs of Claim which are mailed must be sent to the following address:

Metromedia Fiber Network Claims Docketing Center
P.O. Box 5078
Bowling Green Station
New York, NY 10274-5078

Proofs of Claim which are sent by messenger or overnight courier must be delivered to the following address:

Metromedia Fiber Network Claims Docketing Center
United States Bankruptcy Court
Southern District of New York
300 Quarropas Street – 2nd Floor
White Plains, NY 10601

All proofs of Claim must use the English language and be stated in lawful currency of the United States (to the extent known or determinable) as of May 20, 2002 (the "Commencement Date"). To receive an acknowledgment that your proof has been received by the Claims Agent and actually filed, you must provide an extra copy of the proof and a postage-paid, self-addressed envelope.

Proofs of Claim Not Required to be Filed

Proofs of claim are not required to be filed by Creditors holding or wishing to assert Claims against the Debtors for: (a) Claims for which a proof of claim has already been properly filed against the Debtors and which proof of claim the claimant does not seek to change; (b) Claims listed in the Debtors' "Schedules of Assets and Liabilities" as neither "disputed," "contingent" or "unliquidated" if the creditor agrees with the amount set forth therein; (c) Claims arising from an unexpired lease or executory contract need not be filed unless and until such unexpired lease or executory contract is rejected, in which case the claim arising from rejection of the unexpired lease or executory contract shall be governed pursuant to separate Court Order; provided however, that claims arising from the rejection of unexpired leases or executory contracts by operation of the Bankruptcy Code or heretofore approved by this Court shall be filed on or prior to the Bar Date; (d) Claims allowable under §§ 503(b) and 507(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an expense of administration of the Debtors' Chapter 11 estates; and (e) The holders of equity interest in the Debtors.

Related Deadlines

Amendments to the Schedules: If the Debtors amend the Schedules to reduce the amount of, delete, or change the status of a Scheduled Claim previously attributed to you, you may file a proof of Claim with respect to such amended Scheduled Claim by the later of (a) the Bar Date, and (b) thirty days after the date on which notice of the applicable amendment to the Schedules is mailed to you or your counsel; provided, however, that any proof of Claim filed after the Bar Date pursuant to this Paragraph will be limited in aggregate amount (i) to the amount previously set forth in a proof of Claim timely filed by you, or (ii) if no such proof of Claim was timely filed, to the amount previously designated in the Scheduled Claim for you. If the Debtors amend the Schedules solely to increase the amount of a Scheduled Claim, this Paragraph will not apply and no extension of the Bar Date will be provided.

Claim Amendments: Following the Bar Date, you may not amend a Scheduled Claim deemed filed on your behalf. Following the Bar Date, you may amend a timely-filed proof of Claim only to the extent that (a) the amended proof is based upon the same facts and circumstances as the timely-filed proof of Claim, and (b) the additional amounts set forth in such amended proof of Claim were not reasonably ascertainable by the Bar Date.
