MOTION FOR PERMANENT PROTECTIVE ORDER

Now comes BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth"), and files this Motion for Permanent Protective Order. The parties to this docket have indicated that they have no objection. BellSouth seeks a Permanent Protective Order from the Prehearing Officer for the following reasons:

1. Revenue and access line information, and minutes of use, among other information provided in BellSouth's Supplemental Responses to the Office of Public Counsel's Second Set of Interrogatories and Second Request For Production, and Third Set of Interrogatories response is information that BellSouth considers to be proprietary and subject to Sections 364.183 and 364.24, Florida Statutes.

FPSC-COMMISSION CLERK

2. BellSouth, therefore, seeks a permanent Protective Order that will include the following restrictions: (“Proprietary Information”).

- a. The use of any Proprietary Information protected under this Order will be limited to this docket;
- b. The provisions of this Order will continue to govern all Proprietary Information unless and until a final order is rendered by the Commission or a court of competent jurisdiction determining that specific items of information are non-confidential at which time the Order will cease to apply to such non-confidential information, but will remain in effect as to the remainder of the information;
- c. This Order will not apply to information already in the public domain;
- d. This Order will supplement the procedure for use of confidential information set forth in the Prehearing Order and the Order Establishing Procedure issued in this docket.

WHEREFORE, in order for the Staff and counsel for the parties to have access to such Proprietary Information in this docket, BellSouth seeks granting of this Motion and that the Prehearing Officer issue a Permanent Protective Order as requested herein.

Respectfully submitted this 9th day of December, 2003.
