2. For each of the states, if any, in BellSouth’s nine-state territory not identified in response to No. 1, is BellSouth aware of any motive why AT&T has not contested the respective BellSouth SWA intrastate tariff filings? Please explain your answer.
3. Please identify the specific aspect (or aspects), if any, of the Florida filings that differ from BellSouth’s comparable intrastate SWA Contract Tariffs filed in the other states.
4. Please provide a copy of BellSouth’s interstate SWA Contract Tariff filing made with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

Is the above-referenced definition of a “growth discount” the applicable standard to evaluate whether a BellSouth intrastate tariff is a “growth tariff?” Please explain your answer.

7. Is the above-referenced definition of a “growth discount” the applicable standard to evaluate whether a BellSouth interstate tariff is a “growth tariff?” Please explain your answer.
8. Please identify any intrastate tariff filings made in Florida which BellSouth believes constitute “growth tariffs.” Include in your response the tariff number, the date filed, docket number, and any other pertinent reference data.

Staff Inquiry for AT&T

Docket No. 020738-TP

For the purposes of questions 1-5, please refer to ¶13 of the Amended Petition of AT&T Communications of the Southern States, LLC (AT&T).

1. The Amended Petition states at ¶13 that “[i]n addition to its federal tariff, BellSouth has filed comparable intrastate SWA Contract Tariffs in all nine states in its territory.” Please identify the states where AT&T has contested the respective BellSouth SWA intrastate tariff filings.
2. Please identify the specific aspect (or aspects), if any, of the Florida filings that differ from the “comparable intrastate SWA Contract Tariffs” filed in the other states in BellSouth’s territory.
3. For each of the states, if any, in BellSouth’s nine-state territory not identified in response to No. 1, please identify the state and briefly explain why AT&T has not contested the respective BellSouth SWA intrastate tariff filings.
4. Has AT&T filed a petition to initiate a proceeding with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) in regard to BellSouth’s interstate filing? If the answer is affirmative, please provide a copy of this filing.
5. If the answer to No. 4 is negative, please explain why not.
6. References throughout AT&T’s Petition and Amended Petition claim that BellSouth’s intrastate tariffs are “growth tariffs.” Please define “growth tariff,” including in your response the source(s) relied upon to develop your definition.

7. FCC 99-206¹ at ¶134 states “Growth discounts refer to pricing plans under which incumbent LECs offer reduced per-unit access service prices to customers that commit to purchase a certain percentage above their past usage, or plans that offer reduced prices based on growth in traffic placed over the incumbent LEC’s network.” (Footnote omitted)

Is the above-referenced definition of a “growth discount” the applicable standard to evaluate whether a BellSouth intrastate tariff is a “growth tariff?” Please explain your answer.
8. Is the above-referenced definition of a “growth discount” the applicable standard to evaluate whether a BellSouth interstate tariff is a “growth tariff?” Please explain your answer.
9. Aside from the allegations in the instant proceeding, please identify any intrastate tariff filings made in Florida which AT&T believes constitute “growth tariffs.” Include in your response the tariff number, the date filed, docket number, and any other pertinent reference data.
10. Please identify any interstate tariffs that have been filed with the FCC by any Florida-certificated telephone companies which AT&T believes constitute “growth tariffs.” Include in your response the tariff number, the date filed, docket number, and any other pertinent reference data.
11. How many intrastate local switching minutes did AT&T have in BellSouth’s Florida territory for 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, and the first half of 2002 (1/1/02 - 6/30/02)?

¹In the Matter of Access Charge Reform; Price Cap Performance Review for Local Exchange Carriers; Interexchange Carrier Purchases of Switched Access Services Offered by Competitive Local Exchange Carriers; Petition of US West Communications Inc. for Forbearance from Regulation as a Dominant Carrier in the Phoenix, Arizona MSA, CC Docket Nos. 96-262, 94-1, and 98-157 and CCB/CDD File No. 98-63, Fifth Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (1999).

12. AT&T's amended petition at ¶37 states

[I]f such reduced volumes [for "declining growth" IXCs] are occurring because an IXC is moving traffic from BellSouth's network to its own network or other networks, greater discounts would make it more cost effective for the IXC to leave its traffic on BellSouth's network. On the other hand, if such reduced volumes are resulting because the IXC is losing customers to another IXC

Has AT&T been moving intrastate traffic from BellSouth's network to its own network or other carriers' networks? If the answer is affirmative, please explain your answer. If the answer is negative, is AT&T planning to move intrastate traffic from BellSouth's network to its own network or other carriers' networks? Please explain your answer.

13. If the answer to No. 12 is affirmative, please answer the following:

- A) Why has AT&T been moving intrastate traffic from BellSouth's network to its own or other carriers' networks? Please explain your answer.
- B) Please specify the rate elements (e.g., local switching, transport, etc.) for which AT&T is purchasing fewer intrastate, switched access minutes of use due to moving traffic from BellSouth's network to its own or other carriers' networks.
- C) Has the intrastate traffic been moved from BellSouth's network to AT&T's network, or to other carriers' networks? If other carriers' networks, please specify whose networks.
- D) If AT&T moved its intrastate traffic back to BellSouth's network, would AT&T then qualify for BellSouth's discount plan for switched access? If not, please explain why.

14. Is AT&T purchasing fewer intrastate, switched access minutes of use from BellSouth over time? If so, is this the result of AT&T losing customers to other IXCs? Please explain your answer.
