3.) FLORIDA STATE BUSINESS AUTHORITY

See Exhibit "A"

1 4.) GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES AND ENHANCEMENT OF COMPETITION TO THE
2 STATE OF NEW YORK

3 Telepacket, Inc. ("Telepacket") will operate in Florida as facilities based local and inter-LATA and
4 intra-LATA exchange service provider using UNE-P and UNE. Telepacket's services will include
5 standard as well as Voice Over Internet Protocol (VOIP) residential and business exchange lines and
6 service. The company will offer these services in conjunction with resold local and inter-LATA
7 exchange and toll services.

8 Telepacket will offer its services 24 hours per day, seven days a week to all classes of customers.

9 Increased competition in a market has been proven to result in direct benefits to the consumers, such as 10 lower prices, better quality service, innovative uses of technology and a greater selection of options.
11 Telepacket's provision of facilities based service to Customers will provide a competitive alternative to 12 the public and it will promote, through competition, the efficient use of the facilities based exchange
13 telecommunications network. The Commission has found it to be in the public interest for there to be
14 competition in the provision of facilities based exchange services and, as a new entrant in the market,
15 Telepacket will increase the level of competition in the market and bring consumers new cost-effective
16 options.

9.) EX PARTE/EXPEDITED BASIS

Telepacket believes that there is no reasonable basis for a protest to its Application and those hearings would be unnecessary and would only service to delay the advent of greater competition. Therefore, Telepacket requests that its Application be granted on an ex-parte basis. Further, Telepacket respectfully requests that the Application be granted on an expedited basis. By processing and approving this Application quickly, the Commission can expand consumer choice in Florida.

Tariff Format

A. Sheet Numbering – Sheet numbers appear in the upper right corner of the page. Sheets are numbered sequentially. However, new sheets are occasionally added to the tariff. When a new sheet is added between sheets already in effect, a decimal is added. For example, a new sheet added between sheets 15 and 15 would be 14.1.

B. Sheet Revision Numbers - Revision numbers also appear in the upper right corner of each page. These numbers are used to determine the most current sheet version on file with the Florida PSC. For example, the 4th Revised Sheet 14 cancels the 3rd revised Sheet 14.

C. Paragraph Numbering Sequence – There are seven levels of paragraph coding. Each level of coding is subservient to its next higher level.

- 2.
- 2. (A)
- 2. (A). 1
- 2. (A). 1. (a)
- 2. (A). 1. (a). 1.
- 2. (A). 1. (a). I. (i).
- 2. 1. 1. A. 1. (a). I. (i). I. (1).

D. Check Sheets - When a tariff filing is made with the Florida PSC, an updated check sheet accompanies the tariff filing. The check sheet lists the sheets contained in the tariff, with a cross reference to the current revision number. When new pages are added, the check sheet is changed to reflect the revision. All revisions made in a given filing are designated by an asterisk (*). There will be no other symbols used on the check sheet if these are the only changes made to it (i.e., the format, etc. remains the same, just revised levels on some pages). The tariff user should refer to the latest check sheet to find out if a particular sheet is the most current on file with the Florida PSC.

When charges for calls are mileage sensitive, airline mileage is computed as described below.

Calls are measured and rounded to the higher full minute from the serving wire center of the Customer's originating location to the serving wire center of the destination of the call, regardless of Company routing. The distance between the serving wire center origination point and that of the destination point is calculated by using the "V" and "H" coordinates as defined by Bell Communications Research (Bell Core) and NECA Tariff FCC No.4 in the following manner:

Step 1 Obtain the "V" and "H" coordinates for the originating and terminating wire centers.

Step 2 Obtain the difference between the "V" coordinates of each of the serving wire centers. Obtain the difference between the "H" coordinates.

Step 3 Square the differences obtained in Step 2.

Step 4 Add the squares of the "V" difference and "H" difference obtained in Step 3.

Step 5 Divide the sum of the squares obtained in Step 4 by ten (10). Round to the next higher whole number if any fraction results.

Step 6 Obtain the square root of the whole number obtained in Step 5. Round to the next higher whole number if any fraction is obtained this is the airline mileage of the call.
