PURPOSE OF CHAPTER 11 FILING. Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code enables a debtor to reorganize pursuant to a chapter 11 plan. A plan is not effective unless approved by the Bankruptcy Court following a confirmation hearing. Creditors will be given notice concerning any chapter 11 plan, or in the event the case is dismissed or converted to another Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor remains in possession of its property and intends to continue to operate its business.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS. A creditor is anyone to whom a debtor owes money or property. Under the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor is granted certain protection against creditors. Common examples of prohibited actions by creditors are contacting a debtor to demand repayment, taking action against a debtor to collect money owed to creditors or to take property of a debtor, and starting or continuing foreclosure actions or repossessions. If unauthorized actions are taken by a creditor against a debtor, the Court may penalize that creditor. A creditor who is considering taking action against a debtor or the property of a debtor should review §362 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice. The staff of both the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court and the United States Trustee's Office are not permitted to give legal advice.

MEETING OF CREDITORS. The Debtor's representative, as specified in Rule 9001(5) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), is required to appear at the meeting of creditors on the date and at the place set forth above for the purpose of being examined under oath. Attendance by creditors at the meeting is welcomed, but not required. At the meeting, the creditors may examine the Debtor and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The meeting may be continued or adjourned from time to time by notice at the meeting, without further written notice to the creditors.

CLAIMS. Schedules of creditors will be filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007. Any creditor holding a scheduled claim which is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount may, but is not required to, file a proof of claim in this case. Creditors whose claims are not scheduled or whose claims are listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount and who desire to participate in the case or share in any distribution must file their proofs of claim. A creditor who desires to rely on the schedule of creditors has the responsibility for determining that the claim is listed accurately. It is not necessary to file your proof of claim at this time. Separate notice of the deadlines to file proofs of claim and proof of claim forms will be provided to the Debtor's known creditors. Proof of claim forms are available in the Office of the Clerk and may also be obtained from the Court's web site at www.nysb.uscourts.gov. Claim forms should be filed with the Clerk of the Court at the following address:

United States Bankruptcy Court
Southern District of New York
Re: CoreComm New York, Inc., et al.
P.O. Box 5077, Bowling Green Station
New York, NY 10274

DISCHARGE OF DEBTS. Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor, except as provided in the plan.
