COMMISSION
CLERK

DATE: August 31, 2004

TO: Blanca Bayó, Director, Division of Commission Clerk and Administrative Services

FROM: Dovie L. Rockette-Gray, Attorney, Office of the General Counsel DRG

RE: Docket No. 040432-TL – Complaint by David Slavens Against Sprint-Florida,

Mr. David Slavens, doing business as The Computer Guy of NW Florida, Inc. (The Computer Guy) has requested through Attorney Mark Welton a voluntary withdrawal of the complaint he filed May 7, 2004 against Sprint-Florida (Sprint) for alleged default on a contract commencing May 1, 2004 between The Computer Guy and Sprint for installation and maintenance of Channelized T1s (PRIs). Mr. Welton emailed a letter to Counsel at the Florida Public Service Commission on August 3, 2004 stating that The Computer Guy is no longer in business (see attachment).

A formal signed letter on the above request by Mr. Welton or Mr. Slavens has been requested by Staff Counsel on several occasions, but has not been received. At this point, Staff Counsel believes that nothing further will be received due to the stressful events that caused Mr. Slavens to close his business in the first place. Therefore, Staff Counsel recommends withdrawal of the complaint and the docket closed.

ok to close 9/2/04 hr

All correspondence for The Computer Guy may be sent in c/o Attorney Mark Welton, 1020 Ferdon Blvd. South, Crestview, FL 32536.

Re: The Computer Guy of NW Florida, Inc.

Dear Dovie:

This letter is to inform you that The Computer Guy of NW Florida, Inc., has closed its doors and is no longer in business. I have been asked to inform you that based on the fact that the business is no longer a viable entity they do no desire to maintain their complaint with Sprint. The business has no assets and has shut the doors.

If you need any further information, feel free to call me.

Mark Welton
