ORIGINAL

Kay,

In Docket No. 040828-TP, the CLEC is shown as Lightyear Communications, Inc. (TX257), and in 040835-TP it is shown as Lightyear Network Solutions, LLC (TX781). Both amendments make changes to the underlying agreement, Docket No. 020556-TP.

During the 90 day review period of these filings, TX257 was cancelled and all its assets were assigned to TX781 (the new company) and as a result we have two amendments with different names for the same underlying agreement. (The cancellation was handled in 040599-TP.)

For future reference, please place a copy of this e-mail in the docket file for each amendment, and please make changes to the CMS data for each docket to indicate both CLEC company codes. (Each docket should list both CLEC company codes.)

I will prepare each of my memos using the CLEC name BST filed under. Please let me know if you need further information.

Robyn and Tommy, F Y I.
