Go ahead and open a docket. If we need any further documentation from the company, I will have the assigned analyst take care of it. E.g., secretary of state, etc.

We have a letter from attorneys at Kelley Drye in re transfer of assets, but within the lengthy letter they say "BPS currently is not authorized to provide...[t]hus, the parties request that the Commission register BPS as a provider of resold IXC services in FL so that BPS can provide service to the existing customers of GEBPS. The existing tariff of GEBPS will be re-filed . . . "

Do we open a docket to acknowledge the IXC registration of BPS, or should they be told to submit a registration form?

Kay

P.S. Tommy was cc'd on the letter, so he may have a copy of it. It's dated 10/25 and we received it today.
