4. Does your company maintain storm damage insurance? If not, has it ever and please indicate the dates of coverage.

Response: Sprint purchases "all risk" insurance on its real and personal property assets, including loss of revenue, with sufficient limits to respond to reasonably anticipated catastrophic events. Excluded from this coverage and, thus, self-insured are "outside plant" assets. These can generally be described as distribution lines and poles.

5. Is your company self-insured regarding storm damage?

Response: See Sprint's response to No. 4. Sprint considers self-insurance to mean where commercially provided insurance does not cover storm damage losses, and to include deductible and co-payment allocations to Sprint where coverage is otherwise obtained.
