Docket No. 050663-TC - TG520 - Lakeshore Car Care, Inc.

I have just talked with Mr. Jim Higgins, General Manager. He advised that his bookkeeper sent us the $200 check because she did not know how much to send. He stated that they have two payphones sitting on the wall and that neither has worked for about four years (they are not connected to a phone line). He said the only reason they are still on the wall is because it would destroy the drywall and he did not want to go to the expense to fix that.

He stated he called David Brown on February 28, 2005 and explained this and told David he wanted to cancel his payphone certificate. He said David faxed him the 2004 and 2005 RAF return forms and advised him to pay both and write a letter requesting cancellation. information, RAF System confirms that the forms were faxed.) Mr. Higgins stated that he wrote a letter requesting cancellation and mailed his check and RAF returns in March. I explained that we do not have record of receiving them. He checked his records and found a copy of the letter, which he faxed to me, but said his check never cleared the bank.

I explained that the Commission fined him $1,000 for violation of the RAF rule and that the Consummating Order had been issued. I stated that his certificate will be cancelled anyway since the protest period has expired. I stated that we would apply what he owed to the 2004 and 2005 RAFs and that he could request a refund for the difference. He stated that he does not want to deal with a refund request. Instead, he requested that the $200 be applied to the 2004 and 2005 RAFs, plus late payment charges, and that we "keep the rest."

Therefore, please apply $68.50 ($50.00 RAF, $12.50 penalty, and $6.00 interest) to the 2004 RAF and $131.50 to the 2005 RAF. The check can be deposited. Also, please provide Records proof of payment. Thanks.
