Thank you for looking into this for me. I was definitely confused because I know that the system is really fast - so a delay didn't make sense! At this point, may I just submit this to the docket administratively rather than getting the company to resubmit?

Lee Eng, I checked our e-filings inbox and related folders and confirmed we did not receive this. I also checked the U.S. mail we received this morning to see if by chance it was mailed to us. It wasn't.

E-filings are handled as fast or faster than hard copy filings, so it would have shown up in CMS either the day it was filed or first thing the following morning (depending on time of day it came in).

Hi Kay,

I am trying to figure out if this document is actually in the system. I have checked the CMS and I did not see it. But I am unsure as to whether there is a time delay for e-filing or if the e-filing was not completed correctly by the company. Thank you.
