Re: Mad Hatter Utility, Inc.; PSC Docket No. 041342-WU and 021215-WS
Application for Amendment of Certificates
Our File No. 28023.16

Dear Ms. Bayo:

As a result of discussions with Pasco County and their filing of the "Pasco County's Objection to Application for Amendment of Certificate" submitted to the Commission on March 1, 2007, we at Mad Hatter have gone back and analyzed the legal description with which Pasco County took issue and have determined that they are correct, that there was an error in the legal description of the parcel identified as "Parcel 1" on the notice. This was intended to reflect the legal description of the parcel located on Livingston and shown on Exhibit "B" to the settlement letter dated January 8, 2007.

Mad Hatter Utility, Inc. enlisted the assistance of a surveyor who has now developed a corrected legal description of this parcel. The corrected legal description is attached hereto, along with a sketch of the parcel and a letter from the surveyor outlining the differences.

As noted in the surveyor's letter and sketch, the parcel as correctly described in the attached legal description contains a smaller area of land than that which was described in the original notice or in the original application. The correction of this legal description therefore constitutes a restrictive amendment to the application as filed in Docket No. 041342-WU and should be incorporated into the Agreement between Mad Hatter Utility, Inc. and Pasco County, dated January 8, 2007 and submitted under cover letter to Jennifer Brubaker, dated January 17, 2007.

Based upon these changes, and the County's agreement with the attached surveyor's letter and sketch which has now been received, the County should withdraw their protest to the notice and the Commission should move forward with final approval of the Agreement between the parties.

In addition, attached is the Affidavit of Publication of noticing and two Affidavits of Mailing Notice of the extension of territory for Mad Hatter for the parcels that were not previously noticed as part of Docket No. 041342-WU or 021215-WS.

If you have any questions or need any further information, please let me know. We request that the Commission expeditiously move forward with final approval of this matter, as such approval is a prerequisite to resolution of proceedings in other courts which are currently on short extensions to resolve.

Sincerely,
ROSE, SUNDBSTROM & BENTLEY, LLP

Re: Mad Hatter Utility, Inc.
Our File No. 28023.16

Dear Larry:

I have reviewed the attached notice utilized by Mad Hatter Utility in a recent mailing and publication and the comments from Pasco County's surveyors and attorneys, concerning an error in that legal description. I have concluded that the County comments concerning this error are accurate. The error occurred in the less and except portion of Parcel 1 where the second of seven courses outlined therein is slightly off and therefore, the description does not close as described therein. The second course should read: "S.00°43' 23"W."

I have attached a sketch of the incorrect and the correct description showing how they differ. This is not a survey. However, it does show that the less and except portion will close with this minor change to the description. To the extent that the old description did close (which it did not), it would have described a larger area than the correct description would have reflected. Since this was in the less and except portion of the description, the description of Parcel 1 as included in the original notice and application was in fact larger and encompassed the corrected description (plus more). The difference was a triangular area of approximately .01 of an acre, or 645 square feet.

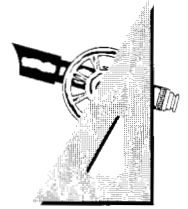

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,
