RE: Charles Ingrassia and Eugene M Dara d/b/a CJ Systems (TG622)

Dear Mr. Ingrassia:

The Commission received the 2007 Regulatory Assessment Fee return form with the note "No more phones. Out of business" written on it. As information, if a certificate is active for any day during a calendar year, the minimum Regulatory Assessment Fee is owed. In this case, you would have had to request cancellation in 2006 or with timely payment of the 2006 fee in order not to be responsible for the 2007 fee. I checked your 2006 return form but there was not a note on it requesting cancellation nor a letter attached requesting cancellation. In addition, the 2006 return showed that you had two payphones still in operation at the end of 2006. However, I will now open a docket to cancel the certificate. The effective date of the cancellation depends upon when or if the 2007 fee is paid.

There are two types of cancellation. One is voluntary, which is when a certificate holder writes us and requests cancellation and pays all Regulatory Assessment Fees. The other is involuntary, and is when a certificate is cancelled on the Commission's own motion for violation of a rule, order, or statute.

If you decide to pay the $100 minimum fee by the due date of January 30, 2008, please write "TG622" on your check and use the enclosed blue envelope, which will insure prompt processing.

If you decide not pay the $100 minimum, the certificate will still be cancelled. It will just be cancelled on the Commission's own motion. Unfortunately, any unpaid fees are turned over to collections. However, the order cancelling the certificate will have a statement that provides if the 2007 fee is paid by the end of the protest period, the cancellation will be considered voluntary.

Please let me know by January 22, 2008, how you wish to proceed. If you have any questions, I can be reached at (850) 413-6502-phone, (850) 413-6503-fax, via e-mail at PIsler@psc.state.fl.us, or at 2540 Shumard Oak Blvd., Tallahassee, FL 32399-0850.
