Re: Claim of Confidential Information
Docket No. 070736-TP
Petition of Intrado Communications Inc. for Arbitration Pursuant to Section 252(BO) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 364.162, Florida Statutes, to Establish an Interconnection Agreement with BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida

Dear Ms. Cole:

Intrado Communications Inc ('Intrado'), by its attorneys, pursuant to Section 364.183(1) of the Florida Statutes hereby claims that certain information provided in its Opposition to Motion to dismiss or, in the Alternative, to Hold in Abeyance, filed by BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida ("AT&T") contains confidential and proprietary business information that should be held exempt from public disclosure.

Intrado makes this claim because, during the course of the interconnection negotiations between Intrado and AT&T, the Parties signed a non-disclosure agreement regarding the exchange of information during the negotiations process. AT&T has provided all information to Intrado via email, which contains a standard claim that all communications from AT&T are confidential and subject to the non-disclosure agreement. Such information is generally subject to review by regulators and legal authorities in interconnection arbitration proceedings and disclosure of such information is a requirement under Section 252(b)(2) of the Act and Florida law. The non-disclosure agreement signed by the Parties also contemplates that such information may be provided to state regulators in connection with a Section 252 proceeding subject to proper notice and proper protection. Intrado provided notice to AT&T on December 18, and hereby makes this claim to ensure that the information deemed by AT&T to be confidential is subject to "proper protection."
