Docket No. 080110-TP

Filed: March 20, 2008

REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

Pursuant to Rule 25-22.0022, Bright House Networks Information Services (Florida), LLC, (“Bright House”) requests oral argument in order to defend against Verizon’s Motion to Dismiss Complaint in this matter. Bright House respectfully submits that oral argument would help the Commission understand the competitive significance and policy implications of the Verizon practice that Bright House is challenging, as well as the scope and meaning of the alternative dispute resolution and related provisions in the parties’ agreement on which Verizon relies in its motion. Bright House has conferred with counsel for Verizon and has been informed that Verizon does not object to oral argument.

Respectfully submitted this 20th day of March,
2008,
