AT&T FLORIDA'S REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida ("AT&T Florida"), pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, hereby files its Request for Specified Confidential Classification ("RCC").

1. On May 28, 2008, AT&T Florida filed its Responses to Florida Public Service Commission Staff's ("Staff") First Set of Interrogatories and Staff's First Request for Production of Documents.

2. AT&T filed a Notice of Intent to Request Specified Confidential Classification for its Responses to Staff's First Request for Production of Documents No. 1 on that same day.

3. Pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, AT&T Florida hereby files this Request for Specified Confidential Classification because its Response to Staff's First Request for Production of Documents No. 1 contains information considered confidential business information related to the competitive interests of AT&T Florida that is proprietary to AT&T Florida. A more specific description of this information is contained in Attachment A.

4. Public disclosure of this information would cause competitive harm to AT&T Florida and provide competitors with an unfair advantage. The information discussed in this Request for Specified Confidential Classification is valuable and AT&T Florida strives to keep it secret. Therefore, such information should be classified as confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. Accordingly, it should be held exempt from the public disclosure requirements of Section 119.07, Florida Statutes.

5. Attachment A to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification contains an explanation of the proprietary information along with a list that identifies the location of the information designated by AT&T Florida as confidential.

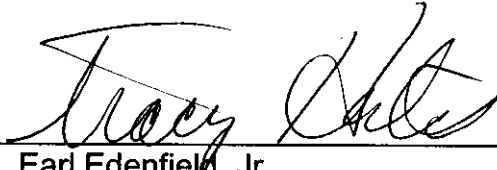

6. Attachment B to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is redacted copies of the document containing the confidential information.

7. Attachment C to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is a highlighted copy of the document containing the confidential information.

8. The original of this Request was filed today with the Office of the Commission Clerk and a copy was served on the Parties.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, AT&T Florida respectfully requests that, pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, the Commission enter an order declaring the information described above to be confidential, proprietary business information that is not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of June, 2008.

Explanation of Proprietary Information

1. This information consists of the commercially valuable and confidential work product of Telcordia Technologies ("Telcordia") that is not made freely available to the public. Under Section 5 of the Amended and Restated Master Agreement for Software and Services with Telcordia, AT&T is bound by Telcordia to maintain the confidentiality of this information, which AT&T strives to maintain. The disclosure of this trade secret material could result in the impairment of AT&T's ability to contract for such research information in the future and could impair the competitive business of both Telcordia and AT&T. Thus, this information is entitled to confidential classification pursuant to Section 361.183(3)(a), 3(d), and 3(e), Florida Statutes and is exempt from the Open Records Act.
