RE:

M & M Petroleum, Inc. (TG337)

Dear Mr. Stevenson:

The Commission received M & M Petroleum's 2008 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) return form with the note "No longer have phones. Cancel" written on the form. However, payment of the 2008 minimum $100 fee was not included. There are two types of cancellation. One is voluntary, which is when a certificate holder writes us and requests cancellation and pays all Regulatory Assessment Fees. The other is involuntary, and is when a certificate is cancelled on the Commission's own motion for violation of a rule, order, or statute. Any unpaid fees are turned over to collections.

As information, the Regulatory Assessment Fee is applicable if a certificate is active for any day during a calendar year even if a company had no revenues or ever started operations. Certificates remain active until a company requests cancellation or the Commission cancels a certificate on its own motion for a rule, statute, or order violation. I reviewed your 2007 RAF return form and there was not a note requesting cancellation. Therefore, since we did not receive a request for cancellation at the end of 2007, the certificate remained active. However, I will go ahead and open a docket to cancel your certificate effective December 31, 2008, however, it cannot be a voluntary cancellation unless the minimum is paid.

Please review this information and let me know how you wish to proceed. My contact information is listed on the first page. Let me know if you have any questions.
