MANAGERIAL AND TECHNICAL CAPABILITY

Jed Stafford – President

Jed Stafford started in software development at Microsoft Corporation in Redmond, WA. He was a software manager overseeing components of the Internet Explorer product. He moved to manage the interactive television backend architecture, which was deployed to IPTV providers worldwide. Prior to leaving Microsoft he managed the internal campus network, and oversaw the Windows Update datacenter build out. Mr. Stafford then went on to accept upper management positions at Geffen Records, Artists Management Group, and Beyond music all focused on the design of datacenter deployments for large applications. Mr. Stafford has consulted on datacenter design for Internap, Microsoft and Checkout.com. Mr. Stafford ran one of the largest telecom master agent programs on the west coast prior to entering the CLEC space.

Rick Garcia – Telecom Consultant

Rick Garcia is a dynamic sales & marketing professional with an extensive background in planning, launching and selling telecommunication services. His ability to envision the success or failure of a product or service comes from his Revenue First model. Today, Mr. Garcia serves 360networks as VoIP Strategist. He's tasked with building 360networks wholesale VoIP offerings and leading the business development charge. Recently, Mr. Garcia Co- Founded Nxtcom Conferencing and Remote Sermon, both conferencing services utilizing VoIP technology and Open-Source platforms. Mr. Garcia was also the Founder of T1pricer, one of the first telecom pricing websites, which successfully sold to a CLEC. Prior to his work at 360networks, he served in Product and Sales leadership roles for US West/Qwest and MCI. Mr. Garcia currently resides in Seattle, WA with his wife and 2 children.

Miles Scruggs – Solutions Engineer

Miles Scruggs is an intuitive problem solver with a natural instinct for developing solutions both from a fundamental architectural, and technical perspective. With a passion for inherent fault tolerant design his eye quickly finds the weaknesses and faults of a situation, and designs with those in mind. Today he runs 6 Squares LLC a CLEC that specializes in unique solutions for small to medium businesses and wholesale services to ISPs. He previously founded, built and sold a software development company Garnet Web Solutions that specialized in distributed direct to consumer sales. Prior to founding 6 Squares he was operations manager for Wide Ideas a product marketing and research development company.
