RE: Grande Communications Networks, Inc. conversion and name change to Grande Communications Networks, LLC.

COMMISSION
CLERK

Dear Ms. Cole:

I am writing on behalf of Grande Communications Networks, Inc., to advise that the company converted from a Delaware corporation to a Delaware limited liability company, resulting in a name change to "Grande Communications Networks, LLC." The company obtained authorization to conduct business in Florida under its new name and form of business organization, as shown in the attached registration. Accordingly, the company respectfully requests acknowledgement of the change of name on the company's CLEC certificate and IXC registration, as well as on the Commission's records. The company currently has no end-user customers in Florida.

Under Delaware law, the company's conversion from a corporation to a limited liability company was accomplished simply by filing a certificate of conversion and certificate of formation with the Secretary of State. Accordingly, the company does not believe that notice of the conversion was required under Section 364.33, Florida Statutes, because it did not result in any transfer of the company's IXC and CLEC certificates to a different entity, but instead effectively changed only the company's name and the form of its business organization. However, the company inadvertently neglected to advise the Commission of its name change, for which oversight we apologize.
